BRITAIN AGAIN PROTESTS JAPANESE BOMBINGS

NO MORE MEN FROM DUCE FOR SPAIN BATTLES

Britain Ready for Talks With France and Italy On Full Ban

Ethiopia Conquest Recognition Debated

LONDON (AP)—Great Britain is ready to discuss with France and Italy the problem of intervention in Spain's civil war, the decision following close on Italy's apparent willingness to ban further volunteer enlistments in the insurgent army.

The British charge d'affaires in Rome was instructed to inform Italian Foreign Minister Galeazzo Ciano that His Majesty's government is in "full agreement with the proposal of M. Delbos (French Foreign Minister) that steps should be taken by means of tripartite discussions between the British, French and Italian governments to deal with the problem of intervention in Spain."

Settlement of the problem of volunteers, it was believed here, was made by Great Britain a condition to recognition of the Italian conquest of Ethiopia.

Earlier dispatches, quoting reports Mussolini had promised Great Britain and France he would send no more volunteers to Spain, said some British observers were considering Mussolini's gestures of co-operation with France and Great Britain as a method of strengthening his position to drive a harder bargain with Hitler.

PEAK PASSED

Some informed observers were inclined to accept as genuine Italy's growing friendliness toward Great Britain and France because of what they asserted were two strong factors:

1. Italy's realization she had passed the peak of her power in relation to Great Britain and France now that their rearmament programmes have begun to take effect;
2. Mussolini is having trouble in Ethiopia, and needs British friendship and recognition of the conquest to facilitate its government.

May Reorganize Land Department

City Committee Suggests Move to Increase Sale of Reverted Properties

Reorganization of the city land department along lines which would divorce it from other activities, such as supervision of the market and fair weights and measures, in order to permit greater activity in the sale of reverted land sales, will be suggested to the City Council at its next meeting by the city's land committee.

At a meeting yesterday the committee, consisting of Alderman R. A. C. Dewar, chairman, and Alderman Archie Willis, considered the matter carefully.

So far this year the lands department has sold more than twice as much property as it did during the same period in 1936. Inquiries are becoming more numerous and the committee feels that its officials should be given every opportunity to follow up leads which might result in sales. The pressure of other business under the present set-up prevents such a follow-up system and the department is able to handle little more than clients who walk into the office.

The committee yesterday considered the advisability of returning the land office to the City Hall proper instead of leaving it housed in the Market Building where it is more or less out of the way.

New York Parade Topped Off By Confetti Blizzard

Bound for home in various parts of the United States today were thousands of members of the American Legion, whose convention in New York ended late yesterday. They all carry memories of the remarkable scene that accompanied their parade, up Fifth Avenue, highlight of the days of the convention. It was said they were given a greater reception by the populace than when the U.S. army returned from France after the close of the Great War. This picture, taken from high in Radio City, gives an impression of the tons of confetti that swirled about the marchers, seen as tiny specks in the street below.

Rome Gives Duce Big Send-off On His Visit to Hitler

More Edmonton School Delay

EDMONTON (CP)—One new infantile paralysis victim reported in Edmonton late Thursday boosted the city's cases to six and today was jeopardizing health board's previous decision to reopen junior school classes next Monday, according to report of Dr. R. B. Jenkins, city health officer.

An emergency meeting of the health board probably will be called to deal with the situation.

Thousands Crowd Streets As Mussolini Departs for Germany

ROME (AP)—Amid a gigantic military demonstration, Premier Mussolini left today for Germany to visit Europe's other powerful Fascist leader, Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler.

Il Duce drove from Palazzo Venezia to his special train in a closed car through streets packed by thousands of Romans, held behind tight lines of militiamen. At the station, thousands more surged and heaved at the ranks of soldiers drawn from every branch of the army stationed in or near Rome. Every eye strained for a glimpse of Mussolini, flashily dressed in the uniform of commander-in-chief of the Fascist militia.

Italy's Premier walked into the station through the royal waiting room accompanied by his closest advisers and among them Count Galeazzo Ciano, his son-in-law and Minister of Foreign Affairs; Dino Alfieri, Minister of Popular Culture; and Achille Starace, Fascist Party secretary. They and others are accompanying him to Germany.

Il Duce quickly reviewed the detail of troops forming an honor guard before his coach and then boarded his train, which departed at 12:20 p.m. (3:20 a.m. P.S.T.)

NEWSPAPER STRIKE

WATERBURY, Conn. (AP)—Eight editorial employees of The Waterbury Democrat, an evening newspaper here, went on strike today and picketed the plant. Higher wages and other concessions are sought.

Women Stay At China Mission

TORONTO (CP)—Seven Canadian women, United Church missionaries, advised to leave north Honan, China, and go to Chikungshan, mountain summer resort, 300 miles south, decided to stick by their posts, according to a letter received from China today by Dr. A. E. Armstrong, secretary of the Foreign Missions Board, United Church of Canada.

Dr. Armstrong and several missionaries recently returned from China were confident none of the seven was in immediate danger.

Chief Wounded At Alcatraz

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Warden James A. Johnston of Alcatraz federal penitentiary was assaulted by convicts today and taken to the hospital.

QUAKE FELT IN MONTREAL

Residents Startled, But No Shocks Registered At Local Observatory

MONTREAL (CP)—Like the rumble of a truck in the night, an earth tremor startled a few Montreal residents early today, then became "unofficial" when McGill University authorities said no quake had been registered on their observatory instruments.

The light tremors, which lasted only about two seconds, were reported felt mostly in southwest parts of the city. The rumblings were placed variously between 1:45 a.m. and 2 a.m. There was no report of damage.

RECORDED AT OTTAWA

OTTAWA (CP)—The Dominion observatory here reported a slight earthquake was registered early today.

The record started at 1:46 a.m. E.S.T. and was of only 10 seconds' duration.

Direction and distance could not be confirmed.

SOCIAL CREDIT CANDIDATE

OTTAWA (CP)—Social credit has invaded the Ontario election campaign. Alex. Denomme, a young French-Canadian, will contest East Ottawa as an exponent of Douglas Social Credit. His opponents are Hon. Paul Leduc, Liberal, and N. J. Lacasse, Conservative.

Pensions For Blind In Effect

The official order-in-council bringing into effect in British Columbia pensions for the blind was passed by the provincial government today.

The order simply proclaims the amendments to the Federal Old Age Pensions Act covering blind people and makes these cases eligible now to apply for allowances.

Premier To Be Honorary L.L.D.

VANCOUVER (CP)—Premier T. D. Pattullo will be granted an honorary doctorate of law and letters when the annual fall convocation of the University of British Columbia opens October 27. Mr. Pattullo, who will receive the only honorary degree conferred at the convocation, will be principal speaker at the afternoon ceremony.

"Tote" Machine Out At Willows

Betting Reverts to Pari-mutuel Tickets; Discrepancies in Recording

Victoria's attempt to provide the racing public with automatic betting totalizers apparently was at an end today after 12 years with the announcement that, for the last three days of the Willows race meeting, wagering will go back to the pari-mutuel system.

The totalizer machines, it was announced after conferences yesterday afternoon between the racing association heads, D. W. Higginson, Federal Department of Agriculture representative, and Jas. de H. Curtis, representing the Australian Totalizer Company, will be replaced today by the form of wagering used on the Vancouver tracks.

Since the meeting opened, Mr. Higginson has been in Victoria studying the operation of the machines to check up on the percentage of discrepancies in the recording of wagers. Discrepancies have been noted on several occasions and when it was found impossible to correct the trouble an agreement was reached to discard them for the final few days of racing. The cost of shipping the plant back to Australia for overhaul to put them in use for next year is prohibitive, Mr. Curtis told The Times this morning.

Victoria was one of the first cities on this continent to get the totalizers for horse racing. The system has always been a favorite with the betting public because it shows the exact amount wagered on each horse at any moment.

Don Sutherland Is Golf Leader

Vancouver Professional Had 54-hole Score of 205 In B.C. Open at Oak Bay

Don Sutherland, stocky little professional from the Vancouver Golf Club, moved into the lead in the British Columbia open championship at the Oak Bay Club today at noon with a 54-hole score of 205. Sutherland, who was in a tie for second place at the end of yesterday's 36 holes, fired a sub-par 68 this morning to gain a one-stroke lead over Stan Leonard, yesterday's pacesetter.

The final 18 holes are being played this afternoon. Leonard came in with a 70, one over perfect figures, for his 206. In third place with 207 was Jimmy Todd, Victoria city amateur champion, whose card this

Strong Representations Against Attacks In China On Non-military Points

BOYCOTT HERE OF JAPANESE

Large Percentage of Shoppers Refuse to Buy Nippon-made Goods

The hidden hand of boycott is beginning to tap Japanese trade in this country. In Victoria quite a large percentage of shoppers are refusing to buy Japanese-made goods since the Sino-Japanese conflict began, according to a survey of local stores.

In other centres throughout Canada the boycott is beginning to be felt and Calgary stores report one out of five customers refuse to buy anything Japanese.

The percentage of Victoria shoppers who refuse to buy toys, china, and novelties made in Japan varies from 10 per cent to as high as 45 per cent.

All salesgirls have noticed a large number of inquiries whether goods are made in Japan or not. Practically 50 per cent of the cheap crockery is Japanese, 40 per cent of the toys, and almost 100 per cent of the novelties.

"A lot of people have the money in their hand and then they notice that the thing is made in Japan and won't buy it," one salesgirl said. She said that Chinese inquired where every article they bought was made, but the boycott was being enforced by white people as well.

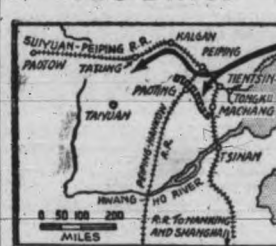

Store managers are beginning to feel the effect. "If there is a real boycott we won't buy any more Japanese goods," one manager said. "We only buy what the public wants to buy."

Japanese aircraft carried out a series of raids on Canton, great metropolis of south China, Wednesday and Thursday, killing and wounding at least 2,000 persons, nearly all civilians. Previously the British government had made representations to Tokyo concerning the Japanese threat to subject Nanking, the Chinese capital, to destructive bombing operations. The British objection was to the bombing of non-military objectives.

(The United States formally protested the Nanking bombings, and France, Italy, Russia and Germany made informal representations.)

Reports the British government intends to invoke the Nine-Powers Treaty, guaranteeing the territorial integrity of China, have not been officially confirmed.

President's Boat Docks Ogden Point

C. G. White May Be Registrar

The appointment of a new registrar for the Supreme and County Courts of Victoria probably will be announced this week-end at the Legislative Buildings.

In provincial circles today it was suggested Cleeve G. White, Victoria lawyer, probably will be appointed.

The appointment is to fill a vacancy caused through the coming retirement, September 30, of B. H. Tyrwhitt Drake, who has held the office for 40 years.

Recently the Victoria Bar Association passed a resolution urging the appointment of a local barrister to the post.

The time of arrival is 12:30. Plans for an enthusiastic reception to the head of the world's greatest republic went ahead today.

A salute of 21 guns will be fired as the destroyer rounds the breakwater, both from the ship and from the shore battery at Work Point.

When the President steps ashore a guard of honor of 100 picked men from the Royal Canadian Navy and Princess Patricia Canadian Light Infantry will present arms at the jetty.

Another 21-gun salute will be fired at the same time. The President will be then driven to Government House along the route previously announced.

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP)—President Roosevelt told a crowd of thousands here today he was going to continue in his second term the way he had in his first, trying to do the "most good for the greatest number."

LONDON (CP and AP)—Great Britain has delivered a new protest to Japan against the horrors of Canton.

Sir Robert Craigie, British ambassador at Tokio, had instructions to make strong representations to the Japanese government against the bombing of non-military objectives by the Japanese air forces in China.

Official sources disclosed the ambassador had been instructed to express the sorrow felt in Great Britain at the loss of life among the civilian population during aerial bombardments of Canton.

Japanese aircraft carried out a series of raids on Canton, great metropolis of south China, Wednesday and Thursday, killing and wounding at least 2,000 persons, nearly all civilians.

PRESS STATEMENTS

Throughout the length and breadth of Britain the massacres at Canton raised bitter feelings of horror and revulsion.

The London Evening Standard tonight printed a caustic cartoon from the famous Low. It depicted five Japanese airmen lined up before a pile of mangled dead. A Japanese officer bowed and exclaimed: "My hon. government will take steps against any Japanese proved to have deliberately or negligently dropped bombs on non-combatants: Will hon. remains please identify?"

HANKOW BOMB DEATHS ARE 200

Japanese Planes Wound 500 In Commercial Centre On Yangtze River

SHANGHAI (AP)—Nine Japanese planes bombed Hankow, the great port of the middle Yangtze River valley, Friday, killing 200 and wounding 500.

The raiders, apparently trying to destroy the big army arsenal in Hankow, dropped three large bombs on crowded city districts, two in the river near the British gunboat Aphis and others in the surrounding country. About 100 buildings were damaged.

Hankow is 600 miles up the Yangtze from Shanghai. Hankow is separated from the main city by the Han River. These two cities, with Wuchang, across the Yangtze, make up the Wuhan cities, greatest commercial and industrial community of central China.

CHOLERA SPREADS

ROME GIVES DUE BIG SEND-OFF ON HIS VISIT TO HITLER

A pilot train had departed an hour earlier to ensure a clear and rapid passage to the Austrian frontier, which he expected to reach in nine hours.

Italian newspapers made much of the impending meeting between Mussolini and Hitler, emphasizing its importance in international affairs.

APPEAL FOR PEACE

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—Informed sources disclosed today that Premier Mussolini and Chancellor Hitler have agreed to make a joint world appeal for peace when they speak Tuesday at the close of a big demonstration at Berlin.

Mussolini, en route to Munich today by special train for what is regarded in diplomatic circles as a highly important meeting with Hitler, was said already to have completed the draft of his speech on the subject.

Italians in position to know said Mussolini first wrote his speech in Italian, then rewrote it himself in German. He speaks German fluently, having learned it while a bricklayer in a German section of Switzerland and, later, while in the Austrian jail at Trento, in the years before his rise to power in Italy.

Hitler, who already has arrived in Munich to greet Mussolini at the railroad station tomorrow morning, and the Italian leader were represented as having in mind the attainment of peace through some arrangement with Great Britain and France, according to information available in diplomatic circles here. However, their plans do not include the participation of Soviet Russia.

The arrangement might be based on another Locarno accord, both Hitler and Mussolini reportedly being willing to enter into such a programme.

It was said the new lineup of Locarno accord members would have to be the same as that of the old Locarno pact, the only changes to which they would agree being the omission of Belgium, which has declared its neutral status, and the omission of the Rhineland clause, which is out of date now.

Credit Liberation Alberta Objective

MAY REORGANIZE LAND DEPARTMENT (Continued from Page 1)

Any selling conducted by the department would not be in competition with private real-estate firms in Victoria. The city would sell only such properties as have reverted through non-payment of taxes.

The approximate assessed value of city owned land at present stands at $3,500,000, while improvements amount to about $400,000.

This year to date the department has sold 59 parcels for an aggregate price of $29,000 against sales of 25 parcels for $6,850 for the same period of 1936.

Actual cash collections made by the department up to the end of August this year amount to approximately $42,208, which includes rentals of $16,600, receipts from sales of land of $19,158, and miscellaneous receipts of $6,450. For the same period last year cash receipts aggregated approximately $19,324, which included rents of $12,100, receipts from the sale of lands of $6,387, and miscellaneous receipts of $837.

BACK ON TAX LIST
In all, the city owns about 5,500 lots.

The land committee has consistently adhered to a policy of encouraging sales in order to encourage citizens to reassume the obligations of taxpayers and extend the source from which taxes may be derived. Practically no land has been sold without a guarantee from the purchaser that he will erect a building. The committee yesterday decided to recommend sale of a lot on Yates Street, between Vancouver and Cook Streets, for $1,750 cash and to exchange four lots in the Cedar Hill area for similar property. Exchange of half a lot on Vancouver Street for another in that vicinity will also be recommended to the council.

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Stabbed 12 times by convicts, Warden C. A. Larkin of Folsom Prison died today, fourth victim of last Sunday's riot in the penitentiary yard.

Difficulties Noted In Throne Speech As Legislature Opens Session

EDMONTON (CP)—Legislation directed at "liberating credit facilities" was promised in the Speech from the Throne read by Lieutenant-Governor J. C. Bowen at the opening of the special session of the Alberta Legislature today.

The speech also noted "grave difficulties" had to be overcome in implementing the will of the people.

Called after the federal government had disallowed acts licensing bankers and preventing civil court actions without consent of the Alberta government, the special session is the third this year and the fifth since the Social Credit government was elected in August, 1935.

"At this special session," said the Lieutenant-Governor, "you will be called upon to deal with certain conditions affecting the credit situation in our province. Legislation will be presented to you for the purpose of liberating credit facilities which will enable our people to enjoy the full benefit of their own production."

The speech also promised amendments to present legislation "for the purpose of securing a more equitable administration."

The calling of the special session, it added, "would indicate to you that grave difficulties must be overcome if the mandate of our people is to be implemented."

FARMERS' OUTLOOK

Of crops, the speech said: "Although we have still serious drought conditions in certain parts of our province, it is a matter of satisfaction that our province will have much better crops this year than last. Notwithstanding the improvement that this will give, it is still evident that economic conditions are far from satisfactory."

Ten bills, it was announced by Premier Aberhart after an all-day caucus of the Social Credit members Thursday, would be introduced during the session.

The reply to the Throne speech was moved by D. Bruce MacMillan, Social Credit, Lacombe, and seconded by William Tomy, Social Credit, Whitford.

If the debate should not be concluded during the afternoon, a night session would be held. It had previously been indicated by Premier Aberhart.

"TOTE" MACHINE OUT AT WILLOWS (Continued from Page 1)

In future an approximate odds board will be posted in the centre-field in front of the grandstand and in the betting ring.

The city will claim payment of $70 a day for each 24 hours of the current race meet at the Willows for which the totalizer machines are not used, Mayor Andrew McGavin stated today.

The machines have closed down, according to information we have been given. As a result, Victoria will collect $70 a day for the period during which they are not used. That payment will be made under clauses of the agreement between the racing association and Victoria when the machines were installed. All we could do in the matter was to abide by the agreement," the mayor said.

Yesterday he considered the issue with several members of his council.

A letter from the Colwood Park Association Limited, above the signature of Harry Maynard, had been received at the City Hall prior to the meeting. The letter stated the betting machines were about to be dismantled and would no longer be available to the racing association.

With the approval of the duly constituted representative of the Dominion Government, it was proposed to install for the rest of the present race meet and put into operation the Pari-Mutuel system generally used on Canadian tracks.

"We would respectfully request approval by the municipal council," the letter added.

Senator Logan Is Remanded

No Plea Yet In Ottawa On New Charge In Gypsum Queen Case

OTTAWA (CP)—The case of Senator Hance J. Logan, K.C., arrested Thursday on a charge of false pretences, was adjourned today by Magistrate Glenn Strike for one week. The senator, accompanied by Senator James Murdoch and his counsel, Gordon McDougall, appeared before the local magistrate, but no plea was taken.

J. P. Madden, assistant crown attorney, told the magistrate that "in all probability the crown attorney will carry on the prosecution" until definite instructions have been received from the Department of Justice. Bail was continued at $5,000.

The informant in the case, O. E. Beament, was represented by his brother, Col. Warwick Beament. The former Thursday swore out an information alleging the senator had obtained, by false pretences and with intent to defraud, $71,276, "the property of His Majesty the King in the right of the Dominion of Canada." This developed out of the famous schooner Gypsum Queen case.

Captain Freeman Hatfield, Nova Scotia shipmaster, under sentence to 18 months in the Ontario reformatory, was convicted on a charge similar to that against Logan. The sea-captain had been paid $71,276 by the Reparations Commission on his representation the Gypsum Queen was sunk July 31, 1915, by a German submarine. The crown established the schooner was lost through stress of weather.

Today, Col. Beament told Magistrate Strike the information had been sworn "by reason of the report that had come to the informant's attention and the evidence adduced recently before the assize."

"One out of five of my customers refuses to buy Japanese goods," a department store clerk said. "If the proportion increases as it has during the last month, it will soon be one out of three."

"Offering Japanese-made china-ware to American tourists is equivalent to asking them to leave the store," the clerk added.

A similar situation was reported from toy shops and counters.

"Cantons' lurid fate," said The London Daily Telegraph, "should be taken to heart by the great capitals of Europe. This raid by heavy bombers was not aerial warfare. It was just promiscuous murder and massacre from the air."

The London Daily Express commented: "The civilized nations of the earth may hang their heads in shame since Canton's bombing. Guernica was first in the massacres up to now, but this eclipses all."

CHANGE IN POLICY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Memoranda of 1914-17 and President Wilson's note-writing efforts to protect United States neutral rights in a world engulfed by war were stirred to life today with publication of the sharply worded United States note to Japan protesting against indiscriminate aerial bombardment of Nanking.

Resort to direct diplomatic pressure marked a distinct change in administration policy in handling the Far Eastern problem. Exactly what prompted it remains something of a mystery to Washington observers, except for this: It does not portend any departure from the fixed determination of the Roosevelt administration to employ the methods of peace in meeting international emergencies.

To some onlookers it occurred that Japan's notification of intention to bomb Nanking offered the Washington government an opportunity for protest action uncomplicated by possible difficulty in determining whether any resultant injury to Americans was due to Chinese or Japanese operations. Washington now has formally warned Tokyo that it will hold Japan responsible.

NOT ABANDONING THEM

Another version current in Washington says the new administration move is designed to offset interpretations placed on President Roosevelt's recent press conference statement at Hyde Park that Americans who remain in Chinese battle areas did so at their own risk. In the light of the note to Tokyo it can no longer be assumed either at home or in Japan that the President was implying abandonment of such United States citizens to their fate.

It so happens that the most recent and forceful action yet taken by the Washington government for protection of its nationals in China came at a time when there were intimations Tokyo was beginning to feel the impact of world public opinion as to employment of ruthless methods in China.

REPLY TO U.S.

TOKIO (AP)—A Japanese Foreign Office spokesman announced Friday that an official reply to the United States protest against aerial bombardment of Nanking was in preparation.

Two days ago the United States protested against a Japanese warning that foreigners should evacuate the Chinese capital for their own safety, terming such a warning impractical and challenging attacks on non-combatants and non-military establishments as inhuman.

An unofficial source said "fresh precautionary orders" had been issued to Japanese airmen this week and that the Tokyo government was "absolutely certain bombers were exerting every care to limit their bombardments to military establishments in Nanking."

These precautionary moves, it was said, however, would not "necessarily" form the basis of Japan's reply to the protest.

About the same time, Foreign Minister Koki Hirota told the Japanese cabinet the government would not send delegates to the League of Nations advisory committee which is seeking a way to curb or end the Sino-Japanese conflict.

The Japanese view of Nanking as the nerve centre of Chinese resistance and consequently a prime object of attack was reflected by the newspaper Nichi Nichi. It warned that protesting powers "will only suffer greater damage in the end" in trying to prevent onslaughts against the capital.

HANKOW BOMB DEATHS ARE 200 (Continued from Page 1)

Shanghai, on the extreme north-western flank of the battlefront. An additional 300 have been definitely established to have the disease.

Chinese military authorities reported a fierce three-day battle at Lofen, just a few miles toward Shanghai from Paoshan, had wiped out five of the six battalions in the Japanese Takashi detachment.

The Japanese detachment lost more than 400 men and huge stores of arms and ammunition in the single night of September 21, the Chinese declared.

NANKING WARNING

Japanese naval authorities Friday again warned all foreigners in Nanking to stay clear of the military objectives, which they said Japanese planes would continue to bomb.

They declared the Japanese general staff had decided the bombardment of Nanking was "the quickest way to end hostilities," and expressed amazement at reports in foreign newspapers that many Chinese civilians had been killed in the series of 12 air raids on the Chinese capital.

"We cannot understand these reports," a spokesman said, "because Nanking is well equipped against air attacks and warnings were issued to the public beforehand."

The warning was similar to one issued several days ago. The southern metropolis of Canton was bombed early Friday morning. Some 2,000 civilians have been killed there during the last three days.

A few machines flew over Canton at 4 a.m., dropping four bombs. A large piece of shrapnel fell on the Italian consulate at Tungshan where the consul is still maintaining an office.

Japanese had landed 40,000 reinforcements at Shanghai during the last week, a spokesman said, but he added only slow progress was being made because of the powerfully-fortified Chinese positions.

POOR NATIVES KILLED

HANKOW, China. (CP-Havas)

Japanese planes Friday bombed this central China metropolis, killing 200 and wounding 500. Six planes participated in the attack.

A majority of the victims belonged to the poorest sections of the city's working population.

Hankow is a railway junction, a vital link in the shipment of arms from the south, and is one of the largest industrial cities in the Far East.

Japanese residents evacuated the city two months ago.

said he had told a friend recently who had advised him to "coast" from now on, that he would not take such advice.

"I don't want to coast and the nation doesn't want me to coast with my feet up on the front wheels," he said.

The President stopped here on route to the Pacific Coast at Seattle, on a tour which will take him on a "good neighbor" visit to Victoria, September 30.

Manufacturers Criticize Eden

British Union Scores Suggestion Colonies' Trade Protection Be Lowered

LONDON (CP)—Alarmed at Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden's remarks before the League of Nations Assembly at Geneva Monday concerning preferences in the colonies, the National Union of Manufacturers Thursday sent a memorandum of protest to the Board of Trade.

Sir Charles Hipwood, director of the union, signed the memorandum, which expressed fear the government was "prepared for political reasons to jettison some portions of the present system of imperial preference."

Objection was taken to Mr.
Eden's declaration that the British government was prepared to discuss with other powers the abatement under certain conditions of preferences in the colonial empire.

Declaring the offer was unlikely to appease "a country whose avowed object is to regain her lost colonies," the memorandum warned such a step would reduce intra-empire trade.

In his speech, Mr. Eden said the British government was ready to enter into negotiations with countries which sought a lowering of these tariffs by the British government, particularly in mandated and autonomously governed colonial territories, providing it was proved these preferential duties constituted excessive restrictions to international exchanges.

BRITAIN-U.S. PLAN

The manufacturers also expressed doubt at Mr. Eden's suggestion for an agreement on a most-favored-nation basis between Great Britain and the United States for the reduction in the preference given to Dominion products over those of the United States.

MINES AID IN NEW UPSWING

WINNIPEG (CP)—Development of Canada's mining fields and natural resources has played a greater part than is commonly realized in offsetting the aftermath of depression in the opinion of Hon. T. A. Crerar, Federal Minister of Mines and Resources.

En route to Ottawa after a 3,600-mile airplane survey of northern and northwestern mining areas, he said here Thursday:
"The average Canadian has not yet commenced to appreciate fully the wealth we have in our north country. No one could have made such a trip as I have just completed and not feel abounding faith in the future of our country."

"It is a faith which is now being justified in the sane development of our natural resources and which to a much greater extent than is commonly realized has militated against the depression and its aftermath of unemployment."

Flier Prisoner To Be Exchanged

CANNES, France (AP)—Spanish insurgent General Francisco Franco informed Mrs. Harold E.
Dahl in a personal letter she received here Thursday her American aviator husband, now a prisoner of the Franco forces, would be exchanged for an insurgent flier held by the Spanish government "if the occasion arises."

Written on the letterhead of the insurgent general staff and dated from Burgos, September 10, the letter assured the blonde United States girl her husband, from Champaign, Ill., was "perfectly well treated."

It was signed with the usual formal Spanish salutation when written to a woman:
"Your obedient servant who kisses your feet.—Francisco Franco."

The letter was her first direct word from the insurgent chief.
Dahl, 28, was shot down by insurgents while flying for the Spanish government on July 12.
He was sentenced to death.

B.N.A. Act Found After Long Hunt

Original Located In London,
But No Cheap Copies
For Sale

LONDON (CP)—The British North America Act—which Premier Aberhart of Alberta says is not in North America—rests in the Victoria Tower of the west side buildings at Westminster,
"Mother of Parliaments." But it took more than an hour sleuthing over London telephones to find that out, and the search for Canada's constitution provoked a few good laughs.

First call was to the Dominions
Office, where the query was put:
Where and in whose custody is the British North America Act?
It produced this answer:

"I'm blown if I know. It must be on the statute roll somewhere.
Hold a minute, I'll find out."
"No, I don't know, unless you try the Public Records Office, and look—here, please let us know what you learn."

NO COPY FOR SALE

The Public Records Office told the inquirer there was one copy, but they had no purchasable
copy.

His Majesty's Stationery Office directed the caller to Eyre and Spottiswoode, but under a change made in 1887, those printers had allowed the act to go out of print.
"But you can see copies in the British Museum or any large library."

So this time the question was hurled at the redoubtable British Museum.

"We must have it," said the clerk, "as we have all the acts of Parliament and you can see them any time you want to."

"May I bring pencil and paper and copy it out for myself?"
asked the reporter.

"Oh, quite. I'd be very pleased."
The seeker after the constitution then took the bull by the horns and called the Clerk of Parliaments, but was augusly informed the office closed at 4 p.m.
It was then 4.10.

ORIGINAL ACT FOUND

A repeat call in the morning found the accountants' office of the House of Lords exceedingly helpful and courteous.

"Yes, we have the original act,
kept in the Victoria tower, printed in book form on about 60 pages of vellum; and we have a copy to show you, but no cheap copies to sell. We can make you a copy, with the following charges: ninepence per folio—70 words—for typing; a pound sterling for the Clerk of Parliaments' certification; seven and a half shillings for obtaining the act
from the tower."

Certainly in the clerk's mind
there is no doubt of the existence of the Canadian constitution even though it is now impossible to get a popular edition for a shilling to read on the street car on the way to work.

In an address September 6 at Edmonton, Premier Aberhart said "nowhere can there be found the original copy of the British North America Act—Canada's constitution."

Subsequently, Dr. J. F. Kenney, acting Dominion archivist, said he would send to London for a certified manuscript copy.

Fish Tagger Is Demonstrated

California Scientist Witnesses Method Used In British Columbia

NANAIMO — Here to discuss the pilchard situation as existing between California, Washington,
Oregon and British Columbia, Dr. W. L. Schofield, director of Fisheries Research Laboratory, of San Pedro, Cal., and his brother, N. B. Schofield, supervisor of Commercial Fisheries of California, of San Francisco, were interested spectators at a demonstration given last night of the system now used in British Columbia for tagging pilchard and herring.

The demonstrators were two young scientists of the Pacific
Biological Station at Departure Bay, Dr. J. L. Hart and Dr. A. L.
Tester. They have just perfected and thoroughly tested a machine which accurately picks out a tagged herring, or pilchard, from others going by at 100 a second.

It is an electrical device of extreme sensitiveness and with it they have already caught pilchards which were tagged in the San Pedro, Cal., area and they have also tagged pilchards which have been returned to them from that area.

The fish are tagged at the spawning grounds with a metal tag of iron, nickel-plated, which is inserted in the abdominal cavity by means of an ingenious
"gun," which has been invented by the scientists and which allows them to tag 100 fish to one by the old method of a sharp knife.

At the saltery point the new invention comes into play. It is a chute-like apparatus leading from the elevator of the scow to the reduction plant. A million fish may be run through this chute in a day, but the electro-magnet coil is so sensitive it will pick 100 tagged fish from the run with scarcely an error. Tags are numbered and a slice with the knife returns the tag to the original owner, and he can tell instantly where the fish has come from and the length of time elapsed for it to make the journey.

France Protests Italian Murder

PARIS (CP-Havas) —
France has lodged a formal protest with Italy over the murder of Giuseppe Miceli, Italian anti-Fascist editor, by Italian sailors and cadets at Tunis, French territory.

An apology from the Italian government and punishment of the persons involved were demanded.

Three Italian sailors, members of a band of about 50
from Italian training ships who sacked Miceli's offices in the North African town Monday, were formally accused of the murder.

Japanese Army Urged To Speed

Arita Warns Nippon Soviet
May Enter Unless China
Quickly "Chastised"

TOKIO (CP-Havas) — Japan must finish its "chastisement" of China quickly, or else the Soviet Union may enter the hostilities, Hachiro Arita, former Foreign Minister, said in an interview Friday on his return from a tour of north China and Manchukuo.

"The Soviet virus is most dangerous when the organism is weakened," he warned, alluding to perils of a long-drawn-out campaign.

Arita said it was impossible to predict when the "China incident" would be settled, although there was no room for doubt, he said, regarding the eventual outcome of the current military operations.

He took note of conflicting opinions as to whether the "punishment" being inflicted on China would end its anti-Japanese sentiments or would stimulate them.

"In my opinion," he said,
"everything will depend on the methods adopted when the time for settlement arrives." He recommended "moderation" in organizing a new north China administration.

Adult Education Survey Planned

TORONTO (CP)—The Canadian Association for Adult Education announced Thursday Fred Stone of Edmonton, former secretary to Premier Aberhart of Alberta and a graduate of Mc-Gill University, had been appointed to conduct a survey of adult education in Canadian industry.

Possibility of correlation of industrial workers and technical schools will be among the problems studied.

Fire Fought On Log Dump

LADYSMITH — A large crew of men fought a fire here yesterday under the huge log dump on tidewater, where the logs from the Comox Company's local operation are rolled into the bay.

Late in the day the wind changed and it seems likely the entire dump will be destroyed.

An explosion caused by the heat early yesterday morning scattered the blazing rubbish along the waterfront, and the resultant fire destroyed a motor launch and boathouse owned by Fred White.

New Secretary For War Office

LONDON (CP) — Major-Gen.
Viscount Gort, V.C., Thursday was appointed military secretary to the War Office. He succeeds Lieut.-Gen. Sir Charles Geddes and will serve also as secretary to the selection board. Lord Gort is 51 and served with distinction in the Great War.

Lord Gort is a kinsman of Capt. J. C. M. Prendergast, who served with the Canadian infantry throughout the Great War and married Miss Dulcie Radcliffe, daughter of Alexander

Union of Peoples

SIR EVELYN WRENCH, IN ARRIVING here from the Far East where he has been privileged to observe the progress of the Japanese raid into China, has said some very pregnant things. He has said primarily that it is the privilege of Britain and the United States and the British Dominions to lead the world into the ways of peace and that the opportunity is at hand.

It seems rather unlikely. Sir Evelyn is an enthusiast with a fixed idea. The idea that the English-speaking peoples can at any time rule the world merely by the power of their word is rather bizarre. There is no doubt that those English-speaking peoples can at any time make a very sound bid for the dominance of the world by the power of their fleets and their armies. But if they should start betting their hand they might be called and they might be called by a junta of nations whose combined might would be as great. The consequence of that would be a world war of a magnitude hitherto unimaginable.

It is to our habit of regarding everyone else as a rather low form of "foreigner" that this attitude is traceable. Sir Evelyn is a splendid fellow with a splendid record, but he is too imbued with the thought that the English-speaking peoples can do just what they like with the world so long as they get together. But they won't get together.

The suggestion of a permanent league of the Oriental peoples for the purpose of controlling the Orient in the interest of the Oriental peoples—who, after all, number a great many millions—appeals to us. If Japan and China could meet at a round table, include the other and less important Oriental states and arrange their difficulties all might be well.

And it would certainly be well for great western nations with great markets in the East.

China's Air Defence

IF JAPAN'S SUPERIOR AIR FORCE should shatter China's first line of air defence, there still will be a second line which might offer considerable resistance, according to information secured by the Institute of Pacific Relations. While China's three main military air fields are located in the east—at Nanchang, Hangchow (Chekiang Province) and Hengchow (Hunan Province)—there are a number of commercial airports in central and western China beyond the immediate striking range of Japan's bombing planes. These commercial fields might be converted into bases for military aviation if and when airports near the coast should be destroyed by Japanese air raids or should prove ineffective for strategic reasons.

During the last few years China has made rapid strides in the field of aviation. A network of commercial airlines has been developed throughout the country, new airports have been established and existing ones have been improved and modernized. There are at least 27 landing fields now used for civil aviation which could be taken over by the military air force. The coastal line of air fields containing the important centres of Peiping, Tientsin, Tsingtao, Haichow, Nanking, Shanghai, Wenchow, Foochow, Amoy, Swatow and Canton is supplemented by two gigantic semi-circles of potential air bases in the interior. These are Anking, Kluksiang, Hankow, Shashi, Whansien, Chungking, Kiating, Kweiyang, Kunming and Chengtu in the south and southwest, and Lanchow, Ninghsia, Paotow, Sian, Loyang and Chengchow in the north and northwest. The innermost points of this network tap the vast hinterland of western China, while Paotow and Ninghsia are near the Outer Mongolian frontier.

Whether these inland bases are sufficiently equipped to meet military emergencies remains to be seen. The strategic importance of some of these inland airports, however, is made clear by the fact that arsenals are located at Sian, Chengtu, Chungking and Kunming, where landing fields are also located. The distance between Chungking and Shanghai is about 1,000 miles, that between Chungking and Chengtu is 180 miles and that between Chengtu and Kunming is 422 miles. Chengtu is about 380 miles from Sian while this latter city is over 750 miles from Shanghai. Lanchow, the innermost airport in the northwest, is about 1,150 miles from Shanghai.

China's military air force would be put into a position much stronger than it is at present through the use of these additional airports which would facilitate operations from bases relatively safe from Japanese raiding. There are now some 450 planes, of which less than 30 belong to the navy, at the disposition of the Chinese government, as compared to Japan's 2,000. China's 1,050 trained pilots are confronted with Japan's 2,300. China's military air fleet consists of the following types of planes: Northrop, Douglas, Volight Corsair, Boeing, Westland, Brewster, Fiat, Caproni, Savoia Marchetti, Avro, Breguet, Wapiti and Nakajima.

Crazy Days

THE LONDON NEWS-CHRONICLE, A Liberal organ and for long associated with Mr. Lloyd George, says editorially in reference to the Sino-Japanese fracas: "If enough government and peoples can still be found in these crazy days of nationalist pride and hatred to think with their minds instead of with their stomachs, even now it may not be too late to save civilization from the final folly of blowing itself to pieces from the air." The editorial goes on to demand action from the British government.

However, these days may be no more crazy than the rest of time past, and if, as the paper suggests, it is nationalist pride and hatred that governs the action of nations then they are actually thinking with their minds and hearts.

It is when the News-Chronicle makes a reference to "thinking with their stomachs" that it comes nearest to the truth. There is a compulsion about the stomach that is not so compelling on the mind, neither does it affect such matters as nationalist pride and hatred. Japan is faced with a tremendous population and a small territory almost entirely industrialized. She views China as her natural expanding ground and proceeds to try and take it for the sake of her national stomach.

What the News-Chronicle is trying to convey can be much better expressed. It is this: When a family in a suburban community starts having rowdy parties till three in the morning, the neighbors complain and the police do the rest. When, however, a nation or a couple of nations do the same thing on a larger scale and not only annoy, but also threaten the rest of the community—that is to say the world—there is no reason why the neighbors should not step in for their own sake. And there is no reason except one. That is that they are all afraid the other fellow would get an undue advantage out of the intervention. Once we can do away with that preoccupation there will be peace in the world.

Hazing Going Out

IN ITS APPEALS IN RECENT YEARS for the elimination of hazing of freshmen, the University of British Columbia appears to be taking part in a movement that is gaining support in colleges throughout the world. In many institutions hazing has gone completely. In others it has been greatly modified.

There seems little reason to apply the Spartan argument to the custom of hazing—that a man must learn to take his medicine. There have been too many instances in recent years where serious injury has been done to college men not because they refused to show sufficient stoicism at some sadistic initiation, but because they showed sufficient courage to resist the bullying which a group of thoughtless colleagues were courageous enough to attempt because of the safety of numbers.

The courage to haze an individual or make disturbances in a city that only comes to a man when he is part of a mob is of a very questionable value. Cowardice is perhaps a better nomenclature. Mob rule is usually the most despicable kind of rule and it is gratifying to note that senior students themselves have been to the fore in expressing their condemnation on occasions when a group of students, with courage boosted by their numbers, have made themselves objectionable in city streets in a manner in which they would not dare to attempt individually.

Notes

The way things are lining up, if war comes we may have to love those Russians again.

Freddie Bartholomew should not let his financial tangle worry him too much; all troubles are relative.

With all the recent advances in medical science is there not some way to make dictators allergic to war?

Diplomacy takes experts. No ordinary man has the "brass" to keep on lying when he knows we know he is lying.

Farming in China will be exciting hereafter. Every so often the plough will hit a Japanese shell or bomb that did not work.

BOMBING PLANES

From Ottawa Journal

While both airplanes and bombs have been developed enormously in recent years anti-aircraft defences also have made rapid strides. Anti-aircraft guns didn't hit many enemy planes in the last war, are not fitting many in Spain or China, perhaps won't hit many in another world war, but they will always compel attacking airplanes to stay high up, and as long as they are forced to fly to a great height they cannot do a great deal of damage.

If these sensationalists had said that a hundred bombing planes could wreck an entirely undefended city in a couple of days they would have been very near the truth, witness the devastating work at Guernica in the Spanish war—but how different is the situation in stoutly defended Madrid! Franco's big bombers of the very latest type have been merrily bombing away at Madrid for eight months, practically always from great heights. But the city still stands, hardly a great building has been destroyed, the theatres are still running, the people come out in the streets to watch the raiders, a few timid ones seeking bomb-proof shelters. The situation is much the same as it was in London in 1917.

A recent test conducted in Great Britain on a derelict battleship showed that one hit from 243 bombs was secured, the planes flying at a height of from 8,000 to 10,000 feet. The destructiveness of the bombing plane cannot be minimized against undefended objectives, but it should not be forgotten that there is an antidote to every poison.

INSOMNIA TABLET

MISS VIVIAN THORP is a columnist and, therefore, suspect. She was traveling about America not long ago for The Minneapolis Journal and, all unnoted by the local yokels, was here, spying on us, sending back dispatches about us, letting Minneapolis know of the many weird discoveries she had made on this strange, outlandish island.

They must get a great kick out of us in Minneapolis. They must think of us as we do of the natives of Borneo or Pitcairn's Island. Yes, said Miss Thorp, "there are 65,000 souls who have chosen Victoria as their mortal habitat. Several thousand of them are a mixed bag of Chinese, Japanese and Hindoos. The rest are retired Britishers. And retired is the correct word. Civil servants from all over the Empire, active service done, live here on their pensions, modestly, idly and comfortably."

"Are they," she asks bluntly, "any more modern than they look, these Victorians? I've shamelessly listened in, but haven't discovered any signs of it. The nearest thing to it are the murmurs of doubt and disturbance over the Aberhart banking law and indignant murmurs as to what will happen if this sort of thing is allowed to go on? Victorians may think this is a city, the island capital of a great province; but one American thinks it is really a lovely, soothing, insomnia tablet; a handful of poppy seed for gentle opium dreams; a beautiful backwater on a fast-flowing modern river. May it never wake up."

"This," says the Minneapolis Informant, "is a middle-age and old-age paradise. Everybody is getting along in years. The women are dressy and, according to U.S. standards, frumpy but very sure of themselves. All the heads seem to be grey or white."

How well you know us, Vivian. And how satisfactory it is for us to know ourselves for once. Here we have been working hard for years, going to business every day, hustling, driving ourselves, imagining we were pretty modern. Here we have built what we thought was a modern city. Why, only this year we erected an ultra-modern monument, in the most modern style, on Pandora Avenue just to prove that we were no longer Victorian. But it is all in vain. It turns out that we are just an insomnia tablet, just a handful of poppy seed for gentle opium dreams.

Just remember that next time you're rushed to death at your office. Just remember that when you have to get up in the dark in the winter mornings to be at work at 9. Remember that you are just a retired Britisher (or a Chinese, Japanese or Hindu), who doesn't have to work, just a lotus eater. Try selling that to the boss in this middle-aged Paradise if you are 15 minutes late. And next time your wife wants a new evening dress tell her, on the authority of The Minneapolis Journal, that she doesn't need one because all the women here are frumpy anyway.

ALL GONE

ALAS, the days of our innocence and our lotus eating have all gone. Miss Thorp has got hold of an old legend, now dead, and tried to breathe new life in it to amuse the poor peasants of Minneapolis. But there used to be a Victoria like that, so they tell me, long ago. Right now we are in the act of removing the last traces of that golden era. We are tearing down the mansions where the old Victorians used to live the sort of life that Miss Thorp imagines so fondly.

And what a story these old houses could tell if they could speak just once before the end, while their naked inner walls are still standing, all their bones visible, all their secrets now open to the public gaze!

What they could tell you about life among the idle Victorian rich in the good old days when the caste system was still in force and a few pioneer families ruled this island like a feudal aristocracy, by right of conquest! Inside those walls, now stripped obscenely before the gaping passerby, what people lived and died? What children were born to go out and become lost forever in another world? What loves and hates, what domestic loyalties and treacheries did these old walls see? What kind of men and women, when they had retired from the respectable world of old Victorian society, from Rockland Avenue drawing-rooms and the old Union Club on Douglas Street? Were they any more respectable than we are, any more intelligent, happier? These walls would know.

They could tell of glittering parties, too, when the guests came in top hats and sky-blue waistcoats and rustling silk trains and wasp-waisted corsets, when the gentlemen, lingering over the port argued with animation over the question of joining Vancouver Island with Canada or the United States. They could remember, if they would talk, some pretty sharp political trading between the pioneer politicians of those days, some graft, conducted with top-hatted respectability, that would make our hardest-boiled modern statesmen blush.

They could remember the first stirrings of the boom in the lush pre-war days and perhaps the ruin that it brought to a lot of people when it collapsed; and they could remember the partings during the war years and the return afterwards and the next boom and the next depression. The present one will be their last boom. There won't be any of them left at the present rate of decay when the next depression starts.

ONTARIO'S VOTING SYSTEM

From The Hanover Post

In the last provincial election in June, 1934, the Liberals won 70 of the 90 seats, yet they polled only a shade over half the votes, 791,139 as compared with 768,687 for all other candidates, and the Liberal vote includes that given to Liberal-Progressives. The Conservatives alone polled 621,374 votes. Our electoral system doesn't really show the will of the people. With his winning of 70 out of 90 seats, one would imagine that Mr. Hepburn had Ontario pretty solidly behind him, but he certainly did not secure 70 out of every 90 votes. He got only about 47 out of 90 votes.

Police Face Major Problem In Sex Criminal

By MARJORIE VAN DE WATER

SEX CRIMES have become a problem in many communities. To meet it, police need the aid of experts—physicians, psychiatrists, psychologists, sociologists are being called upon to advise and join forces against this evil that is endangering women and little children.

Murder is adding its horrors to the attacks upon little boys and girls that are daily becoming more numerous.

Complicating the situation for the police are the hysterical persons who imagine themselves the victims of purely fictional attacks and bring false charges against innocent persons.

Another confusing element is added to the problem by the unfortunate victims of diseased mind who, harassed by an overwhelming sense of guilt, "confess" to crimes that they have never committed. Such cases are familiar to every police department. In Philadelphia recently a man reported to the police that he had killed a little boy and girl and thrown them into the river. After a night-long search for the bodies, the children, alive and well, were found near their home. In other cases where the victims have actually been killed by someone, solution of the case is far more difficult.

Here are some of the proposals suggested by scientific experts for meeting the emergency:

1. A board of qualified individuals to handle all such cases except those of murder. This would avoid crowding sex cases through the mill of police court, juvenile court, jury trial, and civil action.

2. Provision for psychiatric treatment and hospitalization for all those accused who may be found to need it.

3. A night hospital where part-time confinement may be enforced on those whose habits endanger the community only at certain hours. This is an expedient important to communities where full-time confinement of such persons would be literally impossible from the standpoint of the expense involved.

4. More supervised play spaces for children.

5. Instruction of teachers, play supervisors and others having charge of little boys and girls. These persons should be furnished with pictures of all persons in the community who have ever been convicted of sex crimes, so that if one of these criminals is seen loitering near a group of children he could be placed immediately under arrest.

6. Greater care in the examination of records of all those having custody over children in any way. Sex deviates often seek just such positions.

7. More police attention to the unsuccessful attempts to lure away little children. Such matters are customarily ignored in many communities.

8. Reporting to the health department or similar agency of all cases of sex perversion coming to the attention of physicians or police officers in just the same way that cases of smallpox or scarlet fever are now reported.

9. Strict segregation from other offenders of all those guilty of sex crimes. Prisons and jails have become schools for sex deviates.

10. Mental hygiene clinics in the schools. Many believe that if young children were watched for the beginning symptoms of mental disease in the same way that modern schools are now examining for dental, visual and hearing defects, many of the tragedies of later life could be avoided.

11. Sex education in the schools. Experts disagree about the value of a school programme of sex education as a preventative of sex abnormalities. Ideally, such education should be given in the homes, actually it is not. Some psychologists contend that, if introduced, it should be given to parents rather than children.

Handle each case individually, avoid blanket laws and rules, is the general warning given by scientific experts to committees acting in local communities. The young boy who has had too much to drink and gets into trouble, should not be treated the same as the 50-year-old man who attacks a little girl or a little boy. The habitual offender should not receive the same action that is taken in the case of a person for whom the offence is an isolated instance and who has "learned his lesson." Many offenders need advice and instruction rather than punishment; others cannot be helped.

Young Citizens' League Starts

Last night the Victoria Central Division of the Young Citizens' League of B.C. held its first general meeting of the fall season in the headquarters at 565 Yates Street.

George Little, one of the original members of the organization, hoped that now the league had its own hall and office it would progress all the more in "its work of fighting communism and other alien doctrines poisoning the minds of the youth."

Charlton Faces Stiff Opponent

English Football League Leaders Go Up Against Middlesbrough Tomorrow

LONDON (CP)—Transfer of George Mutch, Manchester United's brilliant Scottish inside left, to Preston North End, is the highlight of mid-week soccer news. One of the cleverest forwards in the game, the 24-year-old player cost Preston $27,500.

Scots are favorites in the Lancashire town and, when Preston meets Birmingham tomorrow, no fewer than nine players from north of the Tweed will be included in the line-up. Manchester United brought Mutch from Arbroath four seasons ago at a fee of $5,000, so the club has done well out of the deal.

Charlton Athletic, leading the English League by a one-point margin over Arsenal, Stoke City, Bolton Wanderers, Leeds United and Wolverhampton Wanderers, is likely to play against Middlesbrough without Sam Bartram in goal. The big, blond custodian has been suffering from blood poisoning, and club officials are awaiting a medical report on his condition. If he is unfit, Hobbs will replace him between the sticks.

TOUGH GAME

One of the toughest games on the first division schedule is expected to be that at Wolverhampton, where Bolton is visitor. Leeds United should duplicate nounced this was the first of several prosecutions which would be made if delinquents did not pay these levies. A large list of those who have not paid has been filed with the police and continued putting off of payment will result in summonses being issued in all cases, the chief said.

last season's 2 to 0 decision over Liverpool, in the Yorkshire city, but the other leaders are away from home. Stoke plays at Chelsea, and Arsenal go to Derby, where the County will be forced to show a complete reversal of form to defeat the Gunners.

Aston Villa, fighting to regain major league status, suffered more than its quota of bad luck this week. Alex Massie, Scottish international halfback, injured an ankle Wednesday and will be unable to play in the second division tussle against Fulham, at Villa Park. Later, Cuthbert Phillips pulled a leg muscle, and is expected to be out of the game two weeks or more.

Coventry City, leader by a slight margin over Chesterfield and Bradford, should retain its position at the expense of Notts Forest.

In the third division, southern section, Notts County jumped to the top of the heap with a 2 to 0 victory over Bristol City Wednesday. Tomorrow, the Midlands have a home game against Crystal Palace, an erratic team this season. Gateshead, surprise packet of the northern circuit, has a hard job against the powerful Lincoln City squad, even though playing at home. Last year the City won the corresponding match, 5 to 0, but Gateshead, with a reorganized team, will put up very different opposition.

SCOTTISH LEAGUE

GLASGOW (CP)—Favored with home game against St. Mirren, tomorrow, Glasgow Rangers have a golden opportunity to slip into the driver's seat in the Scottish Football League. Only one point separates the light blues from Dundee, spectacular Forfarshire leader, but the latter will be up against a fighting squad at Hamilton in the Academics. Rangers' strength has caused a lot of debate at Ibrox Park. There is unanimity in regard to the defence, the colorful champions being unbeaten this season, and only six goals sent into the net behind Dawson, their international goalkeeper. But of nine games played, five have been draws, and there are many who think new blood needs to be injected into the attack.

All the other contenders for the leadership have away games. Motherwell goes to Kilmarnock, and should duplicate last season's victory, while Celtic oppose Aberdeen at Pittodrie. Although beaten six times this year, the Dons may spring a surprise on the cup-holding side. Falkirk looks for maximum points against Clyde, but Third Lanark will have a hard job at Arbroath, where the seiders have a habit of downing the best of teams.

EXPECT FIRST WIN

Hearts are favored to defeat Partick Thistle at Tynecastle Park, and Queen of the South is hoping for its first victory of the season at the expense of Hibernians, who have won only one game. St. Johnstone and Queen's Park drew 2 to 2 at Hampden Park, last year, and the teams are evenly matched in tomorrow's contest.

Morton and Ayr United, promoted from the second division, meet on the former's ground at Greenock. While Morton has displayed very poor form in the major league, the United has played first-class soccer, and is now ninth in the table.

In the second division, Raith Rovers, the leaders, play at Stenhousemuir. Alderlieonians and Albion Rovers, tied for second place, one point behind Raith, are likely winners. The former are at home to Dumbarton, while Albion Rovers tackle Brechin City, who have yet to get a point this season.

COLWOOD GOLF

Mrs. W. H. Lawson finished 3 up to win A class honors in the par competition held yesterday at the Colwood Golf Club, while Mrs. Ben Hethy was 4 up to top B division.

NEWARK WINS THIRD GAME

Defeats Baltimore 7 to 5 to Get Within One Win of Minor Ball Title

BALTIMORE—Newark Bears came within one game of clinching the International Baseball League final playoff series last night by beating Baltimore Orioles 7 to 5 for their third straight victory in the best-of-seven series.

Coming from behind with a four-run outburst in the seventh inning, at the expense of Pete Sivers, the Bears won their seventh straight playoff game.

TONY MANERO HEADS FIELD

Captures Medalist Award in Belmont Open Golf With Score of 140

BELMONT, Mass.—Tournament-tempered Tony Manero from nearby Salem, 1936 national open champion, birdied two of the last three holes of his second qualifying round for a two under par 69 yesterday to gain the $250 medalist prize in the $12,000 Belmont open match play golf tournament. He posted 140 for the 36 holes.

Manero rapped in a 16-foot putt on the 16th green and a nine-footer on the home carpet to nose out Byron Nelson of Reading, Pa., his Ryder Cup teammate, and Al Brosch, public links pro from Farmingdale, N.Y., by a stroke.

Slammin' Sam Snead, still a 12 to 1 co-favorite with Lawson Little and Denny Shute, the two-time P.G.A. winner, put a 72 on top of his opening 70 to place fourth in the battle against par. Two followed a stroke behind, as Charles Yansky of Tuxedo Park, N.Y., and Eddie Harrison of Little Rock, Ark., tied for fifth honors with 143 totals.

A stroke in back of that pair and inside the 153 deadline came Leo Diegel of Philadelphia; Al Watrous of Detroit, Vic Ghezzi of Deal, N.J., and Johnny Revolta of Chicago.

Horton Smith, "Lighthouse" Harry Cooper, Chicago's Frank Walsh and Ben Hogan, from Fort Worth, Tex., were on the 145 list. A stroke behind that foursome came Henry Pickard of Hershey, Pa.; Dick Metz of Chicago and Bobby Burns of Montreal.

Small U.S. Banks Find Going Hard

With lower interest rates and increasing restrictions, the smaller banks in the United States are having a hard time to keep going, according to F. W. Nicolls, Reading Pa., bank director who is making his first visit to Victoria at present.

Mr. Nicolls is registered at the Empress Hotel with his mother, Mrs. Frederick Nicolls.

For the last five years they have gone to Banff for their holidays. This year they came on to Victoria for the first time, and they have liked what they have seen so much that they plan to come back again.

Mr. Nicolls is a keen golfer.

Twenty-five Years Ago Today

SEPTEMBER 24, 1912 (From The Times Files)

Under smiling skies and in the presence of a large throng, His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Patterson in a few encouraging and pleasing words opened the annual exhibition of the British Columbia Agricultural Association today.

This morning Sir Richard Mc-

Bride went to Work Point Barracks to inspect the first regiment of the British Columbia Horse, which is stationed here to act as escort for the Governor-General during the vice-regal visit to the city. The Premier is an honorary colonel of the 31st regiment and takes a deep interest in the doings of the troop.

A deputation of Victoria citizens was present at the opening of the Oak Bay Council meeting last evening to present a petition that Pandora Street and Oak Bay Avenue have the same name right from harbor to harbor. The name of "Broadway" was suggested by the deputation as that seemed to be the one most favored by those living on Pandora.

A GOOD MAN TO DO BUSINESS WITH

TIP TOP TAILORS

P. H. Winn, Manager

650 Yates Street LIMITED

BESIDES being the local Tip Top manager—this man is your neighbor and friend—a member of your community. His business is to sell Tip Top Clothes. Above all, however, he sells satisfaction. He realizes that unless he DOES sell satisfaction, he cannot retain your good-will.

He knows—and we know—that to satisfy you he must have the facilities to do so. So—when YOUR Tip Top representative sells you a suit or coat, you are buying much more than the garment itself.

- You buy the experience of a firm, for 27 years in the business of making good clothes.
- You buy the vast knowledge of expert cloth buyers.

$25.95

HAND-CUT AND TAILORED TO YOUR PERSONAL MEASUREMENTS

- You buy the skill of hundreds of trained Union tailors working under satisfactory conditions.
- You buy the resources of a second-to-none designing staff.
- You know that your order will be conscientiously studied. That delivery via air-mail, train, and every modern transportation device will speed your garment to you.

And to serve you better, your Tip Top representative studies his business. He attends style conventions. He has been trained to take your measurements carefully. He does not leave a stone unturned in order to ensure YOUR satisfaction.

He is a good man to do business with.

Mrs. J. Mallows is the guest of Mrs. Dan Malcolm, Westvale, Langford Lake.

Mrs. R. Angus, Bowker Avenue, has returned home from a short visit in Vancouver.

The Misses Muriel and Kathleen Burns, Niagara Street, who are visiting in Seattle, will return on Sunday to their home here.

Mrs. James Peters, Peters Street, is visiting in Vancouver as the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bray.

Dr. and Mrs. John Mercer, formerly Miss Lorraine Pendray, have returned after spending their honeymoon in California and are resident at their home on Cook Street.

Mr. and Mrs. P. de Noe Walker, Brooke Street, who have been spending the last few weeks on a motor trip through the interior of the province, have returned to Victoria.

Miss Lois Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Harris, Fort Street, left at the beginning of this week for Vancouver to attend the University of British Columbia.

Mrs. G. P. Osler of Comox and her son, Mr. P. R. Osler, have returned to their home up the island after visiting in Victoria as guests at the Oak Bay Beach Hotel.

Mrs. Loren L. Brown of Montreal and her daughter, Rosemary, left on Tuesday for their home in Quebec after visiting Mrs. Brown's sister, Mrs. H. V. Mills, Moss Street.

Mrs. F. W. Laing, Ormond Street, who has been attending the provincial convention of the women's Christian Temperance Union, is visiting in Vancouver, and will return on Sunday to Victoria.

Mr. Dan Malcolm of Langford Lake is visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. G. Pattison, in Calgary, Alberta, and intends journeying to the land of his birth, Nova Scotia, before returning to his home in the fall.

Miss Kay Hamber of Victoria was among the guests when Major and Mrs. Austin Taylor entertained at an "after-five" party at their home, "Shannon," Vancouver, Wednesday, in honor of Mr. Joe E. Brown, noted film comedian of Hollywood, Cal., and Mrs. Brown.

Comdr. Rolla Mainguy, R.C.N., of Ottawa, who has been visiting his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. F. Barber-Starkey, Goldsmith Street, left this afternoon for his home in the east.

Mrs. Charles W. Sanders, Victoria sculptress, who for the last eight months has been making a comprehensive study of ceramics in California, has returned to the city. Dr. Sanders, recently appointed medical officer of schools, pro tem, and Mrs. Sanders, will spend the winter at the Bessborough.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Smith of Britannia Mines, who have been visiting in Victoria for the last week with Mr. Smith's mother, Mrs. E. Hamilton Smith, Cavendish Avenue, and with Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Whitney, Victoria Avenue, left last night for their home. They were accompanied home by Miss Dorothy Cameron, Foul Bay Road, who will be their guest for a time.

Brigadier and Mrs. D. J. MacDonald of Work Point Barracks, accompanied by Mr. Paul Read- ing of Calgary, are guests of the Forbidden Plateau Lodge. They will make a horseback tour of the Forbidden Plateau and are planning to spend several nights at the Alpine camps operated by the lodge. The days will be spent in viewing the scenic wonders of the plateau and fishing for the sporty Kamloops trout which abound in many of the lakes.

About 60 friends called at the home of Mrs. Findlay Stewart McKinnon, Wilmut Place, yesterday afternoon when she received for the first time since her marriage. The hostess, wearing her wedding gown of ivory lace and a corsage bouquet of rosebuds, was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. A. C. Rutland, who wore a gown of powder blue chiffon. The beautifully decorated table, with a centerpiece of pink chrysanthemums and matching candles in silver holders, was presided over during the afternoon by Mrs. W. H. Mearns, Mrs. W. M. Allan, Mrs. J. O. Cameron, Mrs. R. T. Elliott, Mrs. A. E. de L. Nunn, Mrs. C. D. Orchard, Mrs. C. W. Bradshaw, Mrs. C. Drummond-Hay and Mrs. A. E. Greenwood. Mrs. James Osborne was in charge of the tea room, and assisting in serving were Mrs. B. H. Schwengers, Mrs. Charles A. Watson, Mrs. D. Mowat, Mrs. T. L. Sturgess, Mrs. Reginald Hammond, Miss Doreen Drummond-Hay, Miss Constance Hobbs and Miss Ethel Bale.

Mrs. H. I. Mallek went over to Vancouver yesterday on a visit to her son, Mr. Lawrence Mallek.

Mr. Gregory Crawley left recently for Seattle to continue his dramatic studies at the Cornish School, under the scholarship awarded him recently by the school. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Crawley of Victoria and is well known in local amateur dramatic circles, being a popular member of the Beaux Arts Society.

Miss Florence Malcolm entertained at the home of her parents on Stanley Avenue on Wednesday at an afternoon tea and towel shower in honor of Miss Clarendia Jeeves, a popular October bride-elect. During the afternoon a corsage bouquet of pink carnations and a large heart-shaped box decorated in pink and white and containing the many gifts were presented to Miss Jeeves. The tea-table was covered with a lace cloth and centred with a bowl of rose asters. Those invited were: Miss Clarendia Jeeves, Mesdames G. R. V. Bolster, F. Goodwin, R. C. Malcolm, the Misses Madge Randall, Jean Jackson, Iris Smith, Thora Harrison, Helen Forsyth, Marjorie Dickson, Kathleen Smith, Lenora Trickett, Betty Forsyth, Rosa Stone, Ethelwynne and Florence Malcolm.

Miss Jessie McQueen, a September bride-to-be, was honored last evening when Mrs. William Logie entertained at a miscellaneous shower at her home on Wildwood Avenue. Michaelmas daisies and other autumn flowers were used in decorating the reception rooms. A large basket, prettily decorated with pink, blue and white crepe paper, and containing the lovely gifts, was presented to the bride-to-be while she sat under a parasol trimmed with pink and white rose petals. Games were much enjoyed during the evening and were followed by a buffet supper, served by the hostess from a table arranged with a lace cloth adorned with bands of yellow, mauve and white crinkled paper and centred with Michaelmas daisies and other flowers in a mauve bowl, and completing this attractive motif were tall yellow tapers in mauve holders. The guests were: Mrs. M. E. McQueen, Mrs. W. Logie Sr., Mrs. J. Small, Mrs. A. Tripp, Mrs. W. Barratt, Mrs. B. Cox, Mrs. Smith Sr., Mrs. J. Smith, Mrs. B. Elliott, Mrs. W. Passmore, Mrs. J. B. Hodgins, Mrs. F. M. Eastwood and Misses Margaret McQueen, Jean Elliott and Helen Elliott.

Former Dancer Seeking Divorce

CHICAGO (AP)—Irene Castle McLaughlin, who earned international fame as a dancer, filed a suit for divorce today against Major Frederick McLaughlin, owner of Chicago Black Hawks in the National Hockey League. Her bill, filed in the superior court, charged cruelty.

Mrs. McLaughlin requested a division of property held jointly with her husband, a businessman and sportsman.

The McLaughlins were married November 28, 1923. They have two children, Barbara Irene, 12, and William Foote McLaughlin, eight.

Through Attorney Robert E. Cantwell Jr., Mrs. McLaughlin charged her husband forced her to leave their home last July 7. Her suit identified McLaughlin as president and chief stockholder of the Manor House Coffee Co. and W. F. McLaughlin & Co. with assets of $1,000,000. His interest in the hockey club was estimated at $250,000 and his salary as president at $10,000.

The total American population includes 3,000,000 infants under one year of age.

Current Events Are Described

An enjoyable meeting was held by the Current Events Club of Gordon Head on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Nellie McClung spoke of the hopeful note sounded in a recent speech made by Mr. Anthony Eden when he said he could foresee more co-operation between the countries with a consequent better feeling.

Giving some interesting facts on Canadian education, Mrs. McClung said that though Canada was a young country, 97 per cent of her people were able to read and write, and though education costs had greatly increased, being 13 cents on the dollar, the cost of armaments to the people in Europe was 46 cents on the dollar.

Mrs. Tysoe described various places she had visited on her recent trip to Great Britain, including the Panama Canal, the beautiful architecture of many London buildings and her impressions of the Royal Garden party at Buckingham Palace, which she attended.

Mrs. M. Hammond contributed four delightful contralto solos, "Bless This House," "Down Here," "My Prairie Flower" and "My Love's An Arbutus."

Y.W.C.A. Open Promising Season

Play and Musical Numbers Mark Big Opening Night

A straw hat, even if it is the latest in western styles, may not be the key to the heart of a prospective mother-in-law, especially if she is a demure little Chinese lady.

The intricacies and difficulties of a Chinese romance were watched yesterday evening with amusement by a packed house, at the official opening night of the Y.W.C.A. Miss Willena Graham was the producer of this delightful little one-act play, "A Somerset to Love," a comedy of changing manners in China, by Lyon Sharmen.

The characters had been well cast, with Mary McDonald as Tu-Fast; Isobel Cave, Jade Maiden; Blanche Corbett as Tai Tai; Nora Williams, Peach Blow; Helen Peaker, the hair dresser; Emily Durkin as go-between, and Dolla McKinnon as the gateman.

Special congratulations must also be given to the costume and setting designers, Miss Muriel Johnson and Miss Gertrude Durkin, for a really lovely combination of colors. A plain background, relieved by trailing wisteria and jars of chrysanthemums and oak leaves, gave prominence to the gay and lavishly embroidered costumes and trousseaus.

At the close of the play Mrs. Richard Felton, convener of the girls' committee, presented Miss Graham with an attache case, and speaking for all present, said how very much indeed everybody regretted Miss Graham's coming departure and how greatly she would be missed.

Two delightful songs, "Big Brown Bear" and "Lovely Lady Passing By," were given by the "Y" Choral Club, accompanied by Miss Margaret Pringle, A.T.C.M., and conducted by Miss Kate Frances Edie, L.A.B. Eileen Chaster, a pupil of Miss Edie Cole, gave two amusing impersonations.

The latter part of the programme was given up to the explanation of the various clubs and groups. Miss Edna Teagle, president of the Y.W.C.A. Girls' Council, introducing Mrs. W. E. Cushing, general secretary, said how very much she, too, would be missed by all connected with the Y.W.C.A.

Mrs. Cushing outlined the four vocational courses, dressmaking, salesmanship, household work and stenography.

Miss Margaret Ryan, girls' secretary, told of the various recreational, educational and social opportunities planned for the girls during the coming season.

At the end of the programme delicious refreshments, arranged by Mrs. Scarratt, were served in the lounge by the girls' committee, and girls registered for their favorite clubs and groups.

LONDON (CP.Havas)—Florence Desmond, actress and widow of Tom Campbell-Black, long-distance flier who was killed in a crash at Liverpool a year ago, and Charles F. Hugesson, insurance broker, were married yesterday at St. James's Church here.

I.O.D.E. Reviews Summer's Work

Reports of summer activities occupied much of the time at the monthly meeting of the Municipal Chapter I.O.D.E. in the headquarters yesterday afternoon. Prior to the opening of business, the gathering stood in silent tribute to the memory of the late Mrs. W. Llewellyn Thomas.

Reference was made to the visit of the executive to Government House, where they were entertained at tea by Mrs. E. W. Hamber.

Alexandra Rose Day had netted the sum of $232.22, and thanks expressed to Mrs. Kyle Symons, the convener. Thanks were also tendered Mrs. P. E. Corby for her address at the anniversary tea and to the Major John Hedden Gillespie Chapter for corsage bouquets on that occasion; to Mrs. Ernest Eve for arranging transportation to "Benvenuto"; and to Spencer's and the Hudson's Bay for the loan of decorations for the chapter's float in the parade.

Mrs. F. F. Beckett told of the work being done by 14 students and asked for assistance for isolated families. Mrs. J. T. Jones asked that the quarterly report for Echoes be sent in as soon as possible. Mrs. Ellis appealed for layettes for the child welfare department, and also told of the presentation of medals in connection with her Navy League report.

Mrs. Alan Campbell gave the League of Nations report and also an account of the Pan-Pacific Conference. Mrs. Eve asked that those wishing transportation to the semi-annual meeting at Duncan on October 8 notify her immediately. Names of delegates should be sent to the municipal secretary, Mrs. C. Wallace Wilson.

DIVORCE IS ASKED

SEATTLE (AP)—Mrs. Irma Rank Willard, wife of Donald B. Willard, airplane company employee who vanished July 6 after leaving two suicide notes, is seeking divorce from him. The action, filed Thursday by Attorney Thomas N. Fowler, spurred a search for Willard, believed by authorities to be still alive. She charged desertion.

The Junior Catholic Women's League held their monthly meeting Tuesday at the home of Miss Eulalie O'Neill, the president. Miss Nora O'Connell, in the chair. Reports from the various committees were read. It was decided to hold the dance, at which time the drawing for the silver fox fur will take place, on Monday, October 4, in the K. of C. Hall. A novelty stall will be convoked by the juniors at the St. Louis College garden party, Wednesday, September 29. Miss Agnes Bantly kindly offered to collect religious papers and magazines for the West Coast missions. After the business meeting an interesting talk was given by Father Bradley, followed by refreshments.

HOROSCOPE

"The stars incline, but do not compel"

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1937

Adverse planetary aspects appear to dominate today, according to astrology.

Bad news that affects the nation may cause consternation east and west.

Under this way there should be the sort of foresight which prevents foolish ventures and premature initiatives.

The mind should be clear and the intuition keen while the configuration prevails.

Confusion and uncertainty may affect executives in government and commercial affairs. It is wise to await developments in international politics.

Care in signing contracts of any sort should be exercised under this rule of the stars. Coming months are to be marked by events of significance.

The stock market may well be expected to be exceedingly active. Leading commercial and industrial shares will be affected by world affairs. For certain stocks sharp rises are presaged.

Formation of a Labor Party as a strong political factor now may be encouraged by the evolution of union plans. Lack of co-operation among leading organizations may retard success.

Recurrent discussion of a third term for the President of the United States will assume a novel phase before midwinter. It is forecast.

Trading and other agreements with Russia are protracted. Strange alignments among the nations of the world will be seen as world chaos threatens.

Persons whose birthdate is in the sign of a year of perplexities and difficulties. The young may cause anxieties to members of their families.

Children born on this day probably will be of keen mentality and conservative characteristics. Subjects of this sign should know how to succeed without help from family or friends.

Abraham G. Werner, geologist, was born on this day, 1900. Others who have celebrated it as a birthday include James Montgomery Flagg, humorist, 1881; William Shepherd Beaman, naval officer, 1888; and Winnie Ream Hoxie, sculptor, 1847. (Copyright McClure Newspaper Syndicate)

Fairfield W.M.S. Held Luncheon

Fairfield Union Church W.M.S. held its monthly meeting yesterday afternoon in the form of a luncheon in the schoolroom of the church. Autumn flowers were used in profusion throughout the room and on the tables, and about 50 members and guests sat down to luncheon, which was served by Miss Edith Hopkins and her helpers.

The president, Mrs. G. G. Green, welcomed the visitors and introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. W. J. Graham, past president of the Presbyterial. She told of the early beginning of the W.M.S. 60 years ago with a small band of women, which has grown to 144,000 membership, with over 7,000 organizations. Mrs. Graham urged all women members of the church to become not only members of the W.M.S., but of the W.A., and work together for the common good.

Mrs. F. Butterfield gave much pleasure with her vocal solos, "The Arrow and the Song" and "My Task." Mrs. George Percy thanked Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Butterfield and Miss Hopkins, and all who worked so energetically to make this first luncheon a success.

Small bouquets of flowers were presented to the outstanding helpers, and Mrs. W. Bevan read an interesting letter from the missionary's wife at Cape Mudge. Miss Morrison gave several amusing Scottish sketches, and the afternoon was brought to a close by the singing of a hymn and the benediction.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

1. Is it good taste for a business firm to use a letterhead printed in two colors?

2. If a typed letter is single-spaced should there be double-spacing between paragraphs?

3. May a letter of only two or three lines be double-spaced?

4. When attaching enclosures to a business letter, is it better to clip them to the back or to the front of the letter?

5. Should one ever talk to his office associates about his personal troubles?

What would you do if—

You are writing on business to a man you have never met or written to before. Would you address him as—

(a) "Gentlemen:"

(b) "Dear Mr. Jamison:"

(c) "Dear Sir:"

Answers

1. Yes.

2. Yes.

3. Yes.

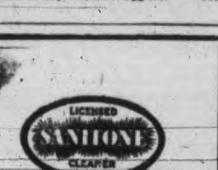

4. To the back.

5. No.

Best "What Would You Do" solution—(c). "Gentlemen" is correct when addressing a letter to a firm; (b) is not incorrect but it is more appropriate for addressing a man you know, or with

SLEEPLESSNESS due to INDIGESTION

If the gnawing, nagging discomforts of indigestion keep you awake night after night, consider the experience of Mrs. A. B., of Wallasey. That was her trouble, too. Tossing and turning in sleepless discomfort! Suffering the pains of a churning, acid-bitten stomach! Then she took Maclean Brand Stomach Powder. Almost at once she found she had conquered her trouble. The pains ceased. She could sleep soundly, peacefully. Maclean Brand Stomach Powder quickly counteracted the acid condition that was gnawing away at the stomach lining. It soothed the inflamed tissues, and helped the stomach to do its proper work of digestion. This Maclean Brand Stomach Powder is used in many leading British hospitals. Try it. But be sure you get the genuine Maclean Brand Stomach Powder. Look for the signature, "Alex. C. Maclean," on both bottle and carton. 75c. either powder or tablets, at druggists.

ISLAND MISSION TOUR DESCRIBED

The great need of religious instruction in many of the isolated settlements of Vancouver Island was remarked by Deaconess Robinson last night in her address at the Memorial Hall. She was speaking of her work in connection with the Sunday School by Post, under the direction of the Church of England in Canada, and giving an account of her visit to the outlying districts during the summer months. Canon S. J. Wickens was in the chair and introduced the deaconess, paying an eloquent tribute to the work done by such noble groups of women as the Women's Auxiliary, the Sunday School by Post and the Sunday School caravan, which has been operating under Miss Eva Hasell's direction.

With the aid of a number of interesting slides, Deaconess Robinson told of her visits to Youbou, Camp 6, Cowichan Lake, Lasqueti Island, where she had conducted classes in religious education. Tofino, Ucluelet, Port Hardy and Quatsino had all been visited by Deaconess Robinson, with told of the appreciation of the parents and of the children's interest in their classes, and in the literature supplied to them.

The slides included a number of pictures of Indians of the West Coast, many of them given her by Mr. B. W. Leeson of Quatsino, to whose work for the Indians Miss Robinson paid warm tribute.

The deaconess will leave next week for a holiday in England, when she also hopes to show a number of her slides and to tell of her work in connection with the Sunday School by Post.

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

TESTIMONY to the class of horses in Victoria for the current race meeting and excellence of the racing is given by the consistency shown by many of the thoroughbreds taking part in the gallops. After a hard two months of racing in Vancouver it is to be expected that some of the gee-gees are tired and past the peak of condition. But the horses that have come around to form at the Willows have demonstrated some wonderfully true running.

Take the case for instance of C. H. West's six-year-old gelding, Enlo, a son of Drastic. About the middle of the summer Enlo fell in a race at Hastings Park when a saddle girth broke. It took him two or three races to come around afterwards. Since then he has been one of the toughest horses on the track in his own class. He won his last start in Vancouver. In his first try over a distance here he had none the best of it against a hard field, but was not badly whipped. The next out he galloped by two lengths and has since won two more, finishing up Wednesday by setting a track record for one mile and three-eighths.

Frank Beban's Maize B is an attempt at the Willows she was other like this. In her first at-beaten a length by Silmo over six furlongs. Dropped into an easy mile race she galloped by six lengths. Again at a mile, competing with western breds she was an easy winner and finally on Tuesday whipped the best western bred sprinters in training here over the six furlong route.

Here are just a few others whose records are worth looking over. The figures are all for the Willows meeting:

Cisco Kid, two wins, two second, one fourth in five starts.

Terry Tet, two wins, a third and once out of the money when he broke slowly.

Leeward, one win, two second and a fourth.

Jillion, two wins, one third.

Lomar, one win, two seconds.

Billy Easter, two wins, one third.

Louie Dear, one win, two seconds.

Princess Han, one win, two seconds.

These are just a few of the more noticeable cases. In each instance the record includes all races in which the horses have run. They are, naturally, horses that have stayed in their own class and distance. Where horses are jumped around from one distance to another and up and down in class, their record does not look so impressive in figures.

Former Keeps Title While Latter Whips Bantamweight King

Ambers Takes Decision From Montanez; Apostoli Gains Technical Kayo

Thil's Eye Cut

NEW YORK—Three championship prizefights in one night, while a laudable enterprise on the part of any promoter, seems at this writing to be at least one championship prizefight too many. Especially if each of them goes the limit of 15 rounds without a knockdown and the feature event curls up and plays dead.

Thirty-two thousand six hundred patrons sat through last night's pugilistic extravaganza at the Polo Grounds, and when they finally stumbled out of the place some time this morning they were wondering if the new fistic czar, Mike Jacobs, hadn't perhaps choked them with cream.

Barney Ross, a welterweight champion with a heart the size of a pumpkin, saved an otherwise uninspiring spectacle with a close and gory victory over Ceferino Garcia, challenger from the Philippines. It would have been a great fight had it stood alone.

Harry Jaffra, a clean-cut, smiling lad from Baltimore, whose chief ambition up to recently had been to become a golf professional, added a final fillip when it was badly needed by winning the bantamweight championship of the world from sad-faced little Sixto Escobar of Puerto Rico, on points.

BOUL CURLS UP

The bout between Lou Ambers, rugged lightweight champion, and Pedro Montanez, a rashly over-exploited young man who owns a bar in Harlem, was the one that curled up. Ambers gave him an awful going-over in close, and it was a dreary thing to watch. Montanez, who had clouted the champion down in a previous over-weight affair, looked muscled and weary at 135 pounds.

Marcel Thil, the big Frenchman, made a considerable hit in the night's initial turn before he suffered a serious cut on his right eyelid and was declared the loser to Fred Apostoli of San Francisco early in the 10th round. The burly Marcel had a clear lead on points at the time Apostoli stabbed him and the blood began to spurt. He had put almost a permanent wave in his flashier opponent's misdeed.

Apostoli, so far as anybody knows for certain, doesn't hold any more championships now than he did before. Thil's European middleweight title wasn't at stake. He can, however, claim the world middleweight title if he wants to start an argument.

Unique Double Is Posted At Willows

Twin Pay-off for the Second Time in Canada as Three Dead Heats Occur

For the second time in Canadian racing history, and the first time in British Columbia, a "double daily double" was paid off at Willows race track yesterday.

It happened when one of three dead heats called during the day occurred in the third race, which is the second half of the daily double.

Hub Petty had won the second and then Jungle Chick and Mortgage Lifter galloped to the finish like a team in the third. The resulting double pay-off was $16.90 on Jungle Chick and $71.05 on Mortgage Lifter, an outsider.

This situation had happened once before on a Canadian race track, on the prairies during the last summer.

The three dead heats in one day was a unique feature in itself. Besides the twin finish in the second, Trossachs and The Pagan

Saanich Soccer League Meeting

The annual meeting of the Saanich and District Football League will be held this evening at 8 in Grist's Hall, Douglas Street. All clubs wishing to enter the league are asked to have representatives present. Any other persons interested are invited to attend.

CUE EXPERT VISITS HERE

Horace Lindrum, Australian Billiard and Snooker Star, On Way to England

Horace Lindrum, 25-year-old Australian billiard and snooker champion, accompanied by W. Inman, 12 times holder of the English billiard title, reached Victoria on the liner Niagara last night and then left on the midnight boat for Vancouver where they played a series of exhibition games this afternoon.

They are en route to England where Lindrum will compete in The Daily Mail Gold Cup billiard tournament. During his brief stay in the city, Lindrum delighted an interested audience at the Metropolitan Billiard Parlors, Yates Street. He ran of a break of 176 and made 100 points with 50 nursery cannons along the top of the table.

When he was 21 years old Lindrum captured his first championship. He is a nephew of Walter Lindrum, world titleholder. Inman is his manager during the present trip, and while in Toronto, Montreal, Vancouver and New York will play exhibition matches with the Australian champ.

Badminton Club Meeting Billed

The Christ Church Badminton Club will hold its first general meeting of the season on Tuesday evening, September 28, in the Memorial Hall, starting at 8. Election of officers for the new season will be held and all members are urged to attend.

Due to an overflow in the membership last year, officials have found it necessary to cut down on the number this year, and for this reason members are urged to secure their application forms from Secretary P. J. Baglino as soon as possible.

Vancouver Pro Has 36-hole Score of 136; Jimmy Todd One Stroke Back

Breeding home with a three under par 66 for his afternoon round, Stan Leonard, long-driving professional from the Hastings Park Club, Vancouver, held a lone stroke lead over the field at the halfway mark in the British Columbia open golf championship at the Victoria Golf Club yesterday afternoon with a 36-hole score of 136. Leonard, former crack provincial amateur, who already holds the Pacific Northwest and Alberta open championships, shot a 70 on the morning round.

The final 36 holes of the tournament were being played at the Oak Bay course today.

Crowding Leonard, a single stroke back, were two Vancouver pros, Don Sutherland, Vancouver Golf Club, and Freddy Wood, Fraser Golf Club, and Jimmy Todd, ranking Victoria amateur and holder of the city championship. Next in line with 139, three strokes off the pace, was Phil Taylor, home club professional. Harry Winder, pro at the University Club, Vancouver, was in the next position with 141. Kenny Black, leading Vancouver simonpure from the Shaughnessy Heights Golf Club, was seventh with 142. Eighth place went to Ernie Tate, pro at the Powell River Club, with 143.

Russ Case, Vancouver amateur and defending champion, shared ninth position with Dave Black, veteran Vancouver pro from the Shaughnessy Heights Club. Each had a 36-hole score of 144.

After posting a 70 in the morning to be two strokes behind the pacesetters, Leonard went to town in the afternoon. He was out in 32, one under perfect figures, and back in 34, two better than par. His card included an eagle three on the 12th hole and five birdies.

LOWEST ROUND

Don Sutherland carried off the honor of turning in the lowest round of the day with a brilliant 65 in the afternoon. He posted a (Turn to Page 15 Col. 4)

BOARD PLANS
BIG CAMPAIGN

Frank Paulding Explains
Community Chest Drive
To Divisions

An important meeting held yesterday at the campaign headquarters marked significant progress in the organization of the Community Chest drive.

Frank Paulding, campaign director, explained the plan of the campaign and the duties assigned to the various divisions and committees. The general enthusiasm pervading the meeting and the keen interest manifested by the leaders gave promise of an effective campaign and success for the unified appeal of the social service agencies for public support.

The meeting was gratified to learn that the office of honorary president had been accepted by R. P. Butchart and that of honorary vice-president by J. W. Spencer.

Present at the meeting were R. H. B. Ker and Fred McGregor, chairmen of the campaign; J. W. Ruggles, chairman of the special division; R. W. Mayhew, chairman of the business division; Mrs. W. P. D. Pemberton, representing Miss Sara Spencer for the residential district; S. J. Hales, chairman of the industrial division; C. S. Henley, chairman of the public services division; E. H. Harris, chairman of the committee on meetings; T. Leeming, auditing director, and G. H. Stevens, listing director.

F. E. Winslow, chairman of the board; D. M. Duncan, vice-chairman; E. W. McMullen, honorary treasurer; Mrs. F. Barr, secretary, and Kenneth Ferguson also took part in the discussions.

Trip Accounts
Are Related

The regular meeting of the Victoria City Temple Young People's Society was held Tuesday evening. Miss Pearl Findlay presiding. Mrs. C. Chatfield gave an interesting account of her trip to Swift Current, relating numerous incidents both humorous and exciting which befell her and her husband on the journey.

L. Cox told of his trip to Kamloops with his family, vividly describing the rugged scenery encountered along the way, and comparing the many changes that had taken place since he had lived there as a boy 20 years ago.

Miss Dorothy Holt related her experiences in a trip to San Francisco, describing many of the places at which she stayed, and the beauty and variety of the scenery.

A sing-song brought the evening's entertainment to a close. Music was supplied by F. Lavery and W. Reid. Members are requested to note that arrangements have been made to join the Metropolitan Y.P.S. in their meeting next Monday at 8, meeting first at Temple Hall at 7.45.

SEND PRODUCE TO PRAIRIES

Appeal to Aid Those In Drought-stricken Areas

In conjunction with the Dominion-wide campaign to raise funds and supplies for residents of the drought-stricken areas in the prairies, the committee of Victoria churches yesterday issued a public appeal to support the local drive.

The British Columbia objective for the drive is 200 carloads of provisions. These will be sent to various parts of the prairies, but particularly to southern Saskatchewan which was hard hit by the drought.

The need for the relief is pointed out in a letter distributed by the B.C. committee, which represents Protestants, Roman Catholic and Jewish churches.

All Canadian railway lines are co-operating with the move in shipping the collected produce and the E. and N. has offered the use of its freight shed on Store Street to store the goods collected here. All contributions should be delivered to this shed for shipment not later than October 6.

Cash contributions will be received by G. T. Moir, 3401 Cook Street.

The committee in charge of the local drive includes: Rev. Dr. A. S. Imrie, Rev. A. E. Whitehouse, Rev. Bryce H. Wallace, Rev. Father A. B. Wood, Rabbi Marcus Berner and Rev. Edwin Bracher.

A social evening and congregational reception will be held to-night in Belmont United Church at 8 to formally welcome the new pastor, Rev. B. H. Wallace, and Mrs. Wallace, who recently assumed charge of the work of the church. A programme of musical items has been arranged and refreshments will be served by the ladies of the church. R. P. Knott will be chairman.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Accounts for September totaling $605.60 and a salary list of $2,748.06 were passed by the Esquimalt School Board last night.

Governor-General Tweedsmuir will speak over the Canadian radio network this evening on his recent tour through northern British Columbia and the Northwest Territories. His talk will be heard here from CRCV, Vancouver, at 7.15.

New regulations governing gasoline burners in homes were passed by the provincial government today. They provide for the issuing of permits for using this type of burner and call for adequate storage provisions for gasoline.

B.C. PRODUCES
MORE WRITERS

But Good Canadian Fiction
Scarce, Says MacLean's
Assistant Editor

British Columbia produces more writers of fiction in proportion to its population than any other part of Canada, according to W. A. Irwin, assistant editor of MacLean's Magazine, who has been spending a few days in Victoria.

But it is still hard to find a good quantity of the better type of fiction in Canada, he said. It is to look for prospects in this line and also to gather material for a series of articles that Mr. Irwin has been visiting the west.

He came here through the drought area of Saskatchewan, driving 450 miles through the worst affected area, and through Alberta, about whose government he refuses to comment, with the explanation, "I'm saving that for the magazine."

He was especially impressed with the contrast to be found in the prairies and the west; no crop at all in southern Saskatchewan, and fairly good one next door in parts of southern Alberta, and then the excitement in the Turner Valley oil fields.

"It is quite an education to travel in this country," he remarked.

Life Insurance
Leader In City

Albert Homer Vipond, Montreal, one of the leading figures in the Canadian life insurance world, is a visitor at the Empress Hotel at present with Mrs. Vipond.

Mr. Vipond has represented the New York Life Insurance Company in Canada continuously for 40 years, and for 34 years has been a member of the company's Two Hundred Thousand Dollar Club.

He was one of the founders of the Life Underwriters' Association of Canada, and was the first man in Canada to be appointed to the office of agents' counsellor by his company.

Yacht Captain
Buried At Sea

HAMBLE, Hampshire, Eng. (AP)—The body of Capt. George Williams was buried at sea today. The master of the racing yacht Endeavor II died Thursday while en route home from Newport, R.I., where the sloop challenged unsuccessfully for the America's Cup.

The funeral service was read by Capt. Mackillip of the power yacht Philanth, which is towing Endeavor II back to England.

Delay Ordered In Movie Rule

One-year Hoist Granted Projectionists After Protest

A one-year delay in a new regulation for movie theatre projection rooms which would cut down the number of experienced projectionists required was announced today by Attorney-General Gordon Wismer.

This gave the first round to the projectionists in their fight to stop the application of the ruling, due next January 1, which would allow theatre operators to employ one projectionist and one apprentice instead of two experienced projectionists.

According to representations made to the cabinet this week by the projectionists and labor men, this would have thrown about half the 300 projectionists in the province out of work. In agreeing to the delay the government took the economic aspect into consideration, the Attorney-General said.

The projectionists, spurred by the announcement, expressed the hope that the regulation would never go into effect.

CONSIGNMENT
CASE OPENS

Agents Charged With Failing to Provide Proper Accounting

Over several objections from J. D. McPhee, defence counsel, hearing opened in the City Police Court this morning before Magistrate H. C. Hall of G. H. Snow and M. Oppenheimer, Vancouver mercantile agents, on a charge of failing to provide proper accounting for a shipment of 10½ crates of tomatoes as required under the Sales on Consignment Act.

Jack Clyne appeared as counsel for the prosecution, and Mr. McPhee for the defence. G. S. Clark, a third Vancouver lawyer, is also watching the case.

When the charge was called this morning Mr. McPhee pointed out that it was against both Snow and Oppenheimer, but the latter had not been served to appear. Mr. Clyne said he was not aware of this fact until his arrival here but would proceed against Mr. Snow.

Mr. McPhee then raised the question of jurisdiction of the magistrate recorded his objection on this point. He entered a plea of not guilty and after the charge was read he moved to quash the charge as too vague and it was not specified which Sales of Consignment Act was alleged to have been contravened.

The charge to read "that G. H. Snow and M. Oppenheimer, did on July 31, fail within 10 days after the sale or other final disposition of a consignment of 10½ crates of tomatoes to separately, accurately, and fully account in writing to their principal, Langley Greenhouses (1930) Limited for and with respect to such consignment contrary to the Sales on Consignment Act."

F. S. Williams, general manager of the Langley Greenhouse, was the informant.

Mr. Clyne quoted the act which provided that every mercantile agent should report fully on any sales to his principal. While the amount in dollars and cents involved in the charge was trivial he said the question of principle involved was of vital importance to the Hothouse Tomato and Cucumber Marketing Board and the tomato growers of the province.

Mr. McPhee again raised an objection, stating that the very questions which would be placed before the court to decide were now before the Supreme Court in a civil action. This action was brought by Langley Greenhouses against Mr. Snow.

During the examination for discovery of Mr. Snow in this case, it had been suddenly stopped "and out of the blue came what I call these criminal charges," Mr. McPhee said. "Why or what object there is in laying these charges at this stage, I fail to understand."

Following this, Mr. Snow had started a libel action against a Vancouver accountant and The Vancouver Daily Province. Mr. McPhee continued, and he contended the matter was now being taken to a criminal court to secure a defence plea in the civil action. The appearance of Mr. Clark at the counsel table substantiated this, Mr. McPhee claimed.

Mr. Clyne rose to object to this, stating that Mr. Clark was not appearing with him but was merely watching the case for his own interest. This criminal action, Mr. Clyne said, had followed a civil action which was instituted to have an accountant examine the books of Mr. Snow, the civil action, he alleged, disclosing certain grounds for criminal proceedings.

Mr. Williams was the first witness called by the prosecution. He testified that G. H. Snow and M. Oppenheimer were partners in the Hothouse Sales Agency, through which his produce had been distributed.

He said that he had received a statement of accounting for the 10½ crates shipment which was the subject of the charge, but had later found, as a result of the accountant's examination of the agency books, that certain deducted charges were not shown in the statement of accounting which he received.

Before undertaking cross-examination, Mr. McPhee launched another objection on the grounds the evidence of the Crown was all against the agency and not against Mr. Snow or Mr. Oppenheimer, individually.

John R. Bazell, Vancouver accountant, was the only other witness heard this morning. It was he who examined the agency books on behalf of the Langley Greenhouses. This examination, he testified, was made in Victoria. Hearing adjourned until next Friday.

Extension of the Ladner ferry charter over the Fraser River for five years from October 1 was granted by the provincial government today to Acme Operating Company, which took over from the previous charter holder, L. M. Robson.

GLJON DEFENDERS
LEAVE POSITION

HENDAYE, Franco-Spanish Frontier (AP)—Asturian troops today evacuated Cangas de Onis, a bulwark in the defence of Gijon, an insurgent communique reported.

Through the slush of freshly fallen snow, the tired defenders of the Spanish Government's last northwestern coast stronghold fell back in the face of a threatened assault on the inland Biscayan village, some 30 miles east and slightly south of Gijon.

The retreat brought a column of General Franco's Navarrese soldiers to the very ramparts of the Asturian fortifications in this sector.

FIRE PENALTY

VANCOUVER (CP)—Police Magistrate H. S. Wood today sentenced Sidney Barrett to three months in jail after he had pleaded guilty to setting fire to the roof of a neighbor's home.

EVICTION CASE
APPEAL HEARD

Judgment Is Reserved By Judge Shandley In Sheriff's Appeal From Conviction

Judge H. H. Shandley, in County Court today, completed hearing of the appeal of Sheriff H. W. Goggin and his deputy, Robert Sangster, convicted in city police court on a technical violation of the city's street obstruction by-law arising from an eviction executed from a house on Superior Avenue.

Judgment was reserved. Argument was presented by C. L. Harrison, city prosecutor, for the city and by A. MacLean of the Attorney-General's department, on behalf of the sheriff and his deputy.

Mr. Harrison contended the police could not touch furniture and other goods placed in the road until they had been informed they were legally abandoned. He claimed the sheriff and his deputy were at fault in failing to inform the police of the status of the goods after the sheriff had been informed the owner did not intend to move them.

Mr. MacLean declared the responsibility for the removal of the goods rested with the owner and that the sheriff and his deputy had completed their work when they had delivered the goods to the owner on the street from the premises in which they were housed.

Both sides cited lists of authorities to substantiate their contentions.

Smith Murder
Proves Baffling

Without Definite Clues, Detectives Continue Intensive Search

Having exhausted every small lead and clue they have received and having questioned scores of possible suspects, city police today admitted they were facing a stone wall in their investigation of the murder on Monday night of Mrs. Helen Mary Smith, 61-year-old widow in a lonely lot on Montreal Street.

Inspector J. F. C. B. Vance, Vancouver criminologist, returned to the mainland yesterday evening.

"This is the most baffling case I have ever investigated," he commented before he left.

Required temporarily for court work in Vancouver, Inspector Vance will probably return to the city early next week to continue his investigations.

"We have investigated every possible phase which we could think of and which the public has suggested, but without success," said Police Chief Thomas Heatley.

"Our investigation, however, is being continued as intensely as ever and will be until we find the solution."

The inquest will be held tomorrow morning at 10 at Haywards' B.C. Funeral Parlors. It is not expected that Inspector Vance will be here for the hearing. Principal evidence will be the medical testimony of Dr. J. H. Moore, who conducted the post-mortem.

Manslaughter
Appeal Lost

With Chief Justice Martin dissenting, the Court of Appeal today dismissed the appeal of Edith P. Picken, found guilty by an Assize Court jury of manslaughter at the Vancouver Spring Assizes. The case arose following the death of Helen McDowell, upon whom the prisoner was alleged to have performed an abortion operation.

Mining Office
For Zeballos

Moving to the scene of Vancouver Island's new goldfield, the provincial government has established a sub-recording office for mining claims at Zeballos River, it was announced today.

The office has been moved from Ceepeece. It is on Clayquot mining division.

George Nicholson was appointed as the deputy mining recorder for the office.

Man Succumbs
After Fight

Provincial police headquarters here today were advised by radio of the death at Wells, B.C., this morning of Edward McNeill. He was reported to have died following a fight.

The report said a man was beaten held for investigation of the killing but no arrest had been made.

OBITUARY

SARAH KING

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah King took place yesterday afternoon. Rev. P. C. Hayman officiating. The casket was covered with beautiful floral tributes. The hymns sung were "O God, Our Help in Ages Past" and "Abide With Me." Interment was in Colwood Burial Park. The following were pallbearers: J. Showers, C. Hutton, William Reid and J. S. Phillips.

REV. JAMES SHARP

Rev. Dr. W. J. Sippell, assisted by Rev. James Hood, representing the Victoria Presbytery of the United Church of Canada, and Rev. A. E. Whitehouse, pastor of Metropolitan United Church, officiated at the funeral services yesterday afternoon for the late Rev. James Sharp. The services were held at the Metropolitan Church in the presence of a large congregation. During the service two hymns were sung, "Thou Hidden Source of Calm Repose" and "Peace, Perfect Peace." Frank Tupman rendered the solo "Unto the Hills Around." The following acted as pallbearers: Arthur Lee, Dr. W. E. Harper, John Grant, E. A. Hurst, A. Menough and E. C. Wilderspin. The remains were later forwarded to Seattle for cremation.

TSUYAKO KAKUNO

Mrs. Tsuyako Kakuno, aged 18 years, wife of Honda Kakuno of Lake Hill, passed away yesterday at the Royal Jubilee Hospital. Born in Victoria, Mrs. Kakuno had resided here all her life. She is survived by her husband, one son, Masami, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Doi, Victoria. The remains were removed to the family residence at Lake Hill this morning. A service will be held in Sands Mortuary Chapel this evening at 9 o'clock, and funeral services will be conducted tomorrow at 2 o'clock in Sands Mortuary Chapel. Rev. Y. Ogura will officiate, and the remains will be laid at rest in Royal Oak Burial Park.

VIOLET E. M. THOMAS

Many sorrowing friends filled St. Mary's Church yesterday afternoon for the funeral of Mrs. Violet Evelina Mary Thomas. A wealth of beautiful flowers covered the casket and hearse. Archdeacon A. E. de L. Nunn conducted the service, assisted by Rev. E. M. Willis, Cobble Hill, and Rev. H. S. Payne. The choir was in attendance, and the hymns sung were "On the Resurrection Morning" and "Ten Thousand Times Ten Thousand." The following were the pallbearers: Dr. S. J. Willis, J. L. Watson, R. Taylor, W. Hembroff, H. J. Pendray, and G. D. Christie. The remains were laid at rest in Royal Oak Burial Park.

JOHN FRANCIS RISSE

There passed away at the Royal Jubilee Hospital this morning, John Francis Risser, aged 66 years. Born at Rose Bay, Lunenburg County, N.S., Mr. Risser had resided in Victoria for over 40 years, and is survived by his brother, Joe S. Risser, of Lynn, Mass., and a stepdaughter, Isabel E. Kenworthy, of this city. He was a member of Vancouver and Quadra Lodge A.O.F. and A.M., Victoria Lodge I.O.O.F., and Sons of Canada and was a charter member of Victoria Chapter, O.E.S. Funeral services will be conducted in the Sands Mortuary Chapel on Monday afternoon at 2.30. Rev. O. L. Jull will officiate, and the remains will be laid at rest in the Royal Oak Burial Park.

Chiang Makes
Plea To Powers

Urges U.S., As Nine-power Pact Convenes, to Lead In Ending War

NANKING (AP)—General Chiang Kai-shek, Premier of China and commander-in-chief of the army, declared Friday the United States was obligated by her treaties "to support China's struggle against Japanese aggression."

The Premier stated "America's responsibility in the present Sino-Japanese war is greater than ever before because she convened the Washington disarmament conference and was mainly instrumental in concluding the Nine-power Pact and the League of Nations covenant."

"China today is fighting not only for her own existence but for defence of the principles of the Nine-power Pact and the League covenant. Therefore it is up to the United States and all other signatories of existing agreements to support China's struggle."

The Nine-power Pact was signed in Washington in 1922. Under its terms the United States, Great Britain, France, Italy, the Netherlands, Portugal, Belgium, Japan and China agreed to maintain the territorial and administrative integrity of China.

... Two mothers washed their children's dresses a glance showed which used Pearl

Here is a real test of perfect whiteness—wash your child's little dress with Pearl White Naptha Soap, and compare it with washing done with ordinary soap.

Many similar tests by housewives have proved Pearl washing to be dazzlingly white in contrast. For Pearl drives out all the hidden dirt that ordinary soaps leave behind. You have no hard rubbing or scrubbing with Pearl, and you don't have to redress your hands using very hot water, because Pearl suds are so rich and quick.

You'll like Pearl White Naptha Soap for the sweet, clean smell it brings to your wash—and for its gentleness to both hands and clothes.

72 on his morning 18. In carding his four under par score, Sutherland was out in 29 and back in 26. His card included an eagle three at the first hole and six birdies.

Todd played steady golf all day. In the morning he uncorked sub-par 68 to share the lead and came back in the afternoon with a par 69. The amateur star was hitting all his shots well and figures to be right in the running for the championship in the final play today.

Wood duplicated Todd's rounds, having a 68 in the morning and using one stroke more in the afternoon. The Vancouver pro had a little trouble with his putter and on both rounds missed chances to whip Old Man Par when he failed to sink four and five footers after beautiful chips onto the carpet.

A BAD SIX

After sharing the lead at the end of the first 18 holes with a sub-par 68, Taylor slipped in the afternoon to shoot a 71. After going out in 33, even par, the Victoria Club pro used up 38 strokes on the second nine. A disastrous six on the 15th ruined his score.

Case, after getting off a 74 in the morning, came back in the afternoon with a 70. The Vancouver amateur was playing well except for his work on the greens. His putting was off color and several times he passed up good opportunities for birdies.

"GOOD EARTH" AT CAPITOL

Paul Muni and Luise Rainer Play Leads in Pearl Buck's Masterpiece

The overworked word "epic" comes into its rightful own with the long-awaited showing of M-G-M's masterful motion picture version of "The Good Earth," which comes to the Capitol today.

Based on the novel by Pearl S. Buck, one of the greatest sellers of modern literature, and on its subsequent stage adaptation by Owen Davis and Donald Davis, "The Good Earth" has been translated to the wide horizon of the screen with rare intelligence, a profound understanding of an alien race, and a sensitivity heart-stirring in its unfoldment of the lives of people bound hand and foot to the soil which gives them their daily bread and also the poetry through which they may sustain their poverty.

In the hands of Paul Muni and Luise Rainer the portrait of Wang and O-Lan are etched in strokes that will linger in the minds of filmgoers for years to come.

DICK POWELL AT THE ATLAS

Popularizing Star, With Splendid Voice, Sings In "The Singing Marine"

Dick Powell, Warner Bros.' handsome singing star, who was last seen here in the gorgeous "Gold Diggers of 1937" a few months ago, will appear again today on the screen of the Atlas Theatre in another immense musical comedy, "The Singing Marine."

This is a yarn about a "leatherneck" from the San Diego barracks, possessed of plenty of good looks and a splendid voice, who is sent to New York by his company-mates to have a try at the amateur hour contest conducted by the famous "Major Rows."

MADE TOUR IN ART INTEREST

Canadian Paintings In Distant Countries Much Appreciated, Lismar Says

Arthur Lismar, educational director of Toronto's Art Gallery, reached Victoria last night by the liner Niagara after a tour of South Africa, Australia and New Zealand, during which he gave 500 lectures on art appreciation. He was accompanied by his wife and daughter. They left Canada last May.

It was at the invitation of the government of South Africa and the Carnegie Corporation of New York that Mr. Lismar went to South Africa. He was asked to sponsor the idea that art galleries should be communal centres, where children could receive free education in art, or, as Mr. Lismar himself said, "to make educational authorities more art conscious."

Mr. Lismar visited the different provinces of South Africa and at each place he lectured on art education from the standpoint of teaching and said he was surprised how easily the teachers realized that children must begin their course with lessons in beauties of nature.

DEMOCRATIZE ART
South Africa, he said, was determined to have a system of art education related to its own background.

"We are attempting to democratize art," Mr. Lismar said. "We want art understood as a social function in the lives of the people, and we won't get anywhere until people are educated to an appreciation of it."

"In Australia and New Zealand I found art education tied up to English methods of 30 years ago. Massive art galleries were filled with mid-Victorian pictures that few people ever went to see. There was no system of exchange of pictures and, in one instance, a sign on the door said, 'No children or dogs permitted.'"

In Johannesburg, Mr. Lismar attended the Empire Art Exhibition, where, through the Carnegie Corporation of New York, Canadian paintings were on view. Later these Canadian scenes were sent to the Antipodes.

"Everywhere I found the people intensely interested in Canada, as a result of the paintings," Mr. Lismar said. "This Canadian exhibit of 104 paintings by artists from all parts of Canada was sponsored by the National Gallery of Canada. I hope that before long works of artists of Australia and New Zealand will be shown in Canada."

Floating Zoo On Way to New York

HALIFAX (CP)—A floating zoo left Halifax Harbor on Thursday for New York. Loaded down almost to the Pilsbush line, the freighter Silverash has been a miniature East Indies' jungle since she left Sumatra and Siam with a cargo of 1,500 species of wild life—feathered, reptilian and four-footed—for the United States Government Zoo at Washington.

SEES OUTLET IN FUTURE

But Time Not Yet Come for Railroad to Peace River, Beatty Says

GRANDE PRAIRIE, Alta. (CP)—Although voicing the belief that a rail outlet from the Peace River area of northwestern Alberta to the Pacific Coast is inevitable at some time in the future, Sir Edward Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, yesterday told members of the Grande Prairie Board of Trade that he could hold out no hope of immediate construction.

"It is a development which you must await with patience," he said, adding that an unbalanced federal budget and subnormal railway revenues made unattainable for the present a project with an estimated cost of $80,000,000.

"Inevitably," he declared, "construction of the outlet must await a more favorable financial situation."

Cost of $80,000,000 was based on previous surveys of a link with Vancouver, Sir Edward stated. Sir Edward's statement on the matter of a coast outlet was given in reply to L. C. Porteous, president of the Board of Trade, who laid this and other declared needs of the north country before the railway executive.

Mayor P. J. Tooley of Grande Prairie presented Sir Edward with a civic address of welcome which included Wm. Neal, vice-president of western lines, and J. M. MacArthur, general manager of the Northern Alberta Railways. Survey of a possible extension north from Grimsby with a view to construction as conditions warranted was promised by Sir Edward, who added that such expenditures as could be justified would shortly be made in improvement of existing freight and passenger services on the northern rail system.

There were more than 200 members and visitors from adjacent towns at the luncheon.

U.S. To Pay War Bonuses

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Maritime Commission ordered yesterday a cash bonus for officers and crews of government-operated vessels entering the war zone in the Sino-Japanese and Spanish conflicts.

The commission voted to pay a $50 bonus to the men on government-operated ships, saying it recognized "the hazards undertaken by seamen sailing into danger zones in Chinese and Spanish waters."

Destroyers Go To Vancouver

Fraser and Skeena Will Be There Four Days Before Returning to Esquimalt

VANCOUVER (CP)—Commander E. R. Mainguy, director of the naval reserves of the Royal Canadian Navy, will arrive here today from Victoria.

He will visit the Vancouver headquarters of the Royal Canadian Naval volunteer reserve, but there will be no inspection. Commander Mainguy was captain of H.M.C.S. Vancouver, before she was "paid off" last year. He was appointed to Ottawa after leaving his ship and has since been director of reserves.

An official four-day visit to Vancouver will be made by H.M.C.S. Skeena and H.M.C.S. Fraser, starting today. The vessels will arrive at 2:30 p.m. and be officially welcomed by port and civic authorities. Several social functions will be held both ashore and on board during the stay. Skeena is commanded by Captain V. G. Brodeur, R.C.N., and Fraser is under command of Commander H. E. Reid, R.C.N.

SURVEY SHIP BACK IN PORT

Wm. J. Stewart Ends 1937 Work, But Leaves Tomorrow to Tow Pender Here

Completing her 50th season of hydrographic survey work off the coast of British Columbia, Ss. Wm. J. Stewart returned to her berth in the inner harbor early last night.

This morning her crew was busy stowing away ship's gear for the winter months. Several of her powerful motor launches were swung over the side and put into storage until next spring.

The smart white ship, today dirty and rusty, however, from weeks in the open Pacific, has one more trip to make before she is finally put to sleep alongside her dock for the winter months.

Tomorrow afternoon she will leave to take the houseboat Pender to tow for Victoria. The Pender is stationed above Rivers Inlet and has not been to Victoria since she was built, seven years ago. She will be overhauled during the winter.

The Stewart experienced poor weather all summer. She did extensive work off the west coast of Vancouver Island and off the Queen Charlotte Islands. But heavy ground swells, days of teeming rain and mists hampered her work. It was impossible to launch the work boats on several occasions, and the crew just had to wait aboard until conditions were better.

Since September 1 the ship has been in Gulf of Georgia waters, but work there was again hampered by smoke.

Another government ship, the lighthouse tender Estevan, is on the west coast, on her way around the island, and will return to Victoria in a week or 10 days.

Veteran Seaman To Sail From Victoria

PETERBOROUGH, Ont. (CP)—David Hardie, 88-year-old businessman, left here today alone for Australia, from whose ports he sailed as master sailmaker on 800-ton clippers more than 60 years ago. He spent 10 years on sailing vessels and later set up a business in Australia, where he lived for a quarter of a century. Hardie will sail from Victoria next Wednesday for Sydney aboard the liner Niagara.

NEW CAPTAIN FOR NIAGARA

Capt. A. T. Totten Relieves Capt. Martin, Who Goes To Ms. Aorangi

Capt. A. T. Totten, regular master of Ss. Monowai, which connects San Francisco with Australia, brought the liner Niagara into port last night at 8 from Australia and New Zealand, via Suva and Honolulu. He was relieving Capt. W. Martin, who stayed ashore at Sydney to take out Ms. Aorangi while Capt. T. V. Hill, Aorangi's master, goes on shore leave vacation. Capt. Martin also enjoyed a few weeks ashore.

Niagara brought in 190 passengers this voyage. Of this total 45 were in the first class, 97 in the tourist cabins and 45 in the third class. A large group disembarked here and proceeded to Seattle this morning.

After discharging 70 tons of general freight and loading 90 tons, mostly paper, Niagara proceeded to Vancouver at midnight. She will sail on her return "down under" next Wednesday.

Six members of the Anglo-Scottish grass hockey team, selected by the All-England Women's Hockey Association, were aboard Niagara, en route to Great Britain after playing 18 games in Australia and New Zealand. They won 12, lost four and tied two.

In this group were Miss N. B. Vaughan, Miss E. M. Oliver, Miss M. R. Oliver, Miss F. Yelf, Miss H. Ennis and Miss K. Blaxland.

CHINESE GROUP ABOARD GRANT

Many Young Students Will Arrive Here From Orient Next Thursday

There are 455 passengers aboard the inbound American Mail liner President Grant, due here next Thursday morning from ports in the Philippine Islands, China and Japan, W. M. Allan, local agent, was advised this morning.

Because of heavy rains at Yokohama the liner was 29 hours late in sailing. As a result she will arrive here a day behind schedule.

She is bringing one of the heaviest lists of passengers handled by a ship of this fleet in some years.

The passengers include 114 Chinese government students—98 young men and 16 young women—who will enter various colleges and universities in Canada and the United States.

Other passengers include Thomas D. Cochrane of Paramount Pictures Corporation, en route to the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minn.; Carter D. Johnson, an attorney of Cebu, P.I., accompanied by Mrs. Johnson, on a vacation trip; Dr. Li Fang Kuei of Nanking, China, an exchange professor, en route to Yale University; Dr. Ke Te Fa, educational commissioner to the United States and European nations from China; Dr. H. H. Martin of the University of Washington, who conducted an Oriental tour party from Seattle, and J. W. Morris, passenger agent for the American Mail Line at Hongkong, on leave.

Mr. Allan was also advised this morning Ss. President McKinley would sail for the Orient tomorrow, leaving Seattle at 11 in the morning, arriving here at 4 in the afternoon and sailing for Yokohama at 6.

More B.C. Lumber Is Sent to the U.S.

SEATTLE (AP)—An increase in shipments of British Columbia lumber to the United States and Alaska from 6,538,637 feet in August, 1936, to 13,431,349 in August, this year, was reported today by the West Coast Lumbermen's Association.

The west coast lumber shipments from mills in Washington, Oregon and British Columbia for August, 1937, were 177,200,989 feet, Pacific Lumber Inspection Bureau shipment reports showed. British Columbia mills shipped 106,250,497 feet or 60 per cent of the total, and Oregon and Washington mills 70,950,492 feet or 40 per cent during the month.

Last Rites Held For Capt. H. D. Balcom

VANCOUVER (CP)—Attended by a large number of seamen, the funeral of Capt. Hughie Dunn Balcom, towboat navigator who died here Tuesday was held yesterday.

Among the mourners were representatives of the M. R. Cliff Towing Company, with whom Captain Balcom had been associated for many years, and the Canadian Merchant Service Guild. The remains will be cremated and the ashes given to the sea off Victoria, at a later ceremony. Captain Rupert Roberts, Capt. Walter Poole, Capt. Joseph McInnis, Capt. Walter Ballagh, Capt. Clifford Simpson and Capt. Richard Jones, were pallbearers.

SHORT SEASON

OTTAWA (CP)—Lack of grain offering for export at Churchill has brought one of the shortest shipping seasons since the opening of navigation through Hudson Strait. Only two freighters visited the Manitoba port on Hudson Bay this year, their combined cargoes clearing out the elevators there. No further shipments are anticipated.
